Welcome!

It's always fun to catch up with our favourite soap stars, especially when their plots are getting rather juicy – so it was a joy to chat to Jake Wood, aka EastEnders' Max Branning. While he told us about the state of Max's twisted marriage to Rainie, he also revealed his own hope for Max's matrimonial future – and it's an interesting one!

“Get yourself the Inside Soap Yearbook 2019!”

Elsewhere this week, there's part two of our Inside Soap Awards winners' coverage, with Emmerdale's Danny Miller revealing all on Aaron's – and his own – popularity with fans. Meanwhile, Danny Dyer and Kellie Bright – Walford's Mick and Linda Carter – tell us why they're over the moon to be named Best Partnership. And if that's not enough for you, get yourself the Inside Soap

AS HAYLEY IS MANIPULATED,
IT BECOMES CLEAR THAT BEV
HAS A WICKED PLAN...

Will Hayley snatch

Overhearing what sneaky Bev is up to gets Kat's whiskers up

y's mum her baby?

Hayley's embracing being a mum – but bully
Bev is after the baby

EASTENDERS | BBC1 THURS

Young mum Hayley Slater is manipulated by her own callous mother Bev this week, as the older woman tries to persuade her own daughter to give up her newborn child! But why is she so keen for Hayley to part company with her little girl? Soon, it becomes clear that Bev has something truly wicked in mind...

Bev's machinations are particularly cruel, because although Hayley has spent months fearing the worst during her pregnancy, she seems to have finally turned a corner now that her baby girl has arrived. Having got past a few dicey moments when she abandoned her daughter on the Ahmeds' doorstep, Hayley has taken some tentative steps towards bonding with her little one. However, spiteful Bev is keen to reverse any progress that has been made.

“The last thing that Hayley needs now is Bev's negativity”

“This woman is beyond belief,” spits our Walford insider. “The last thing Hayley needs right now is a drip-feed of Bev's poisonous negativity. And yet that's exactly what's happening, even though Hayley is trying her best. Bev is hell-bent on criticising every effort Hayley makes. She clearly wants to put her off the idea of motherhood altogether – but to what end?”

Bev encourages Hayley to go outside to get some fresh air. However, it becomes obvious that this is simply a ruse to give Bev the opportunity to put the next stage of her plan into action, and once Hayley has gone, Bev takes a photo of the baby. When Hayley returns after her walk, she comes back in to hear Bev speaking on the phone – and is horrified by what she overhears her mum saying...

"It's clear that Bev thinks Hayley would be better off without the baby," reasons our mole. "She reckons Hayley ruined her life, and if she could turn back the clock, she'd get rid of her. So her attitude towards Hayley's own child is hardly surprising! Hayley isn't sure what to do, but she's feeling so vulnerable it won't take much for her to cave in to Bev's demands."

The next day, Hayley secretly calls Jean to express her conflicted emotions – and her kindly relative tries to reassure her. However, neither woman is aware that they have an eavesdropper... Kat is listening in at No 31, while Bev is keeping a watchful eye at Hayley's end.

Worried that Jean might try to derail her plans, Bev intercepts her target. But while Bev warns jittery Jean to keep her distance, Kat has taken a trip to talk to her cousin.

"Hayley opens up to Kat, and reveals how Bev is pushing for her to give the baby away," reveals our sneak. "Before they can finish their heart-to-heart,

Jean gets jumpy when she's told to jog on they're interrupted by Bev – and Kat wastes no time in telling the awful woman exactly what she thinks of her! Bev might carry the surname Slater, but she's unfit to be part of the family as far as Kat is concerned."

As the two argue, Hayley storms out, leaving them alone – which is when Bev surprises Kat by changing tack.

"Bev offers Kat a cut of the money from what she's got planned for the baby," gasps our snitch. "It's out-and-out bribery! Is there no level to which this depraved woman will sink? Surely Kat won't end up being tempted by such a sick offer – or will she?"

Alfie's home!

Kat is floored to come face to face with her errant ex...

After her troubles with Hayley this week, Kat has a bigger shock in store when she receives a video call from her estranged husband Alfie!

Kat's at a loss at what to do – but turns her attentions back to Hayley as she realises how much the struggling mum is worried about a visit from the social worker. While she tries to help Hayley, Kat ignores Alfie's increasingly frantic calls.

However, realising she can't carry on avoiding her hubby forever, Kat finally gets in touch and follows his instructions – and is staggered to find him waiting for her.

"It's the last thing that Kat is expecting, as she assumed Alfie was phoning from Spain," reveals our Square informant. "When she claps eyes on him, she dares to dream she'll have the chance to be reunited with her children too – but her hopes are dashed.

She's furious when Alfie tells her he's come alone and the boys are still in Spain. So why has he returned?"

Kat breaks down in tears as Alfie tries to explain, prompting Kat to make a momentous decision. However, there's a time bomb ready to explode...

Alfie is blissfully ignorant that Hayley brought her pregnancy to term, while Kat has no idea that Alfie is the child's father.

Surely all it will take is one careless comment for the entire house of cards to come crashing down for the Slaters?

Debbie homeless... and pregnant?

SHE'S EVICTED FROM HER HOUSE –
BUT THAT'S NOT
THE BIGGEST SHOCK
SHE HAS TO FACE...

Debbie is evicted by Graham – but she refuses to take it lying down...

Debbie is left shocked and angry this week, as Graham evicts her from her home. But while she puts on a brave face when Priya hands her the notice, she's hiding another big surprise – she could be pregnant with Joe's baby!

The drama comes as Debbie learns it was Graham who sent the text message from Joe's phone, telling Debbie that he was 'sorry'. Meanwhile, her guilty dad Cain, who thinks he killed Joe, worries that his secret is about to be revealed – and his turmoil is made even worse when he's given reason to suspect that Debbie is pregnant by Joe...

"Debbie is full of fury, and it's all directed at Graham now," says our Emmerdale insider. "He's lied and meddled too many times in her life. Now she wants answers, and she's not going to stop until she gets them. Graham has made a big mistake in crossing her."

After Priya hands Graham the mobile belonging to Joe, he knows the game is up with Debbie. However, nothing can prepare him for her reaction when he apologises to her for sending the text. Upon hearing this, Debbie goes absolutely berserk at Graham, letting out all the pain and anguish of the past few weeks. As Cain learns of his daughter's outburst, he's terrified and tells Graham that they need to keep the situation under control. Nevertheless, the very next day, Graham asks Priya to serve Debbie with an eviction notice, and it all kicks off again!

"Poor Debbie could be facing a shock pregnancy and being homeless all at once," whispers our snitch. "Cain can't believe that Graham could be so callous and is stoking the fire again. Worse

Debbie wants answers – and she's not going to stop till she gets them!"

PLEASE DON'T SPLIT US UP!

Star Charley Webb is worried about Debbie's relationship with her dad...

Cain's secret could spell the end of his relationship with his girl – much to the horror of Emmerdale stars Jeff Hordley (Cain) and Charley Webb (Debbie). The pair hope that whatever happens between dad and daughter, the Dingles can find a way through it.

"It would be hard for me if Debbie hated Cain and it meant that I wouldn't get to work with Jeff any more," shares Charley. "We're both like, 'How far is this going to go?' because we love working together so much. Jeff is one of my closest friends – we have an amazing bond.

It will be good to explore this secret, but we will make sure that Debbie and Cain always get back together."

They've worked together for years now, so has the dynamic between Jeff and Charley changed?

"I've become the parent for him and for Emma Atkins [Charity]," laughs Charley. "They ring me for advice now. It used to be the other way around!"

Will Debbie be able to force some explanations out of Graham's drunken mouth?

still, Graham gets drunk out of his head, and Cain fears that the truth could come out at any moment. And if that happens, they both stand to lose everything."

As Cain works overtime to get Graham sober again, Debbie starts to formulate a new plan. Meanwhile, Noah is worried about Graham and when he flounders in Joe's absence, he asks Debbie for her help.

Despite her hatred of Graham, she agrees to do what she can – believing that she might find a chance to get Graham to talk about what happened to Joe, and for her to get the answers she needs. She reasons that with a baby possibly on the way, none of them can afford to airbrush Joe out of their lives.

Is Debbie truly pregnant? And if so, can Cain live with himself believing that he killed his grandchild's father?

Abi is destroyed – and Seb vows revenge!

SHE'S HOSPITALISED, THEN PUT BEHIND BARS...

Abi's world collapses around her this week, as Tracy finally confesses that she was the one who damaged Michelle's car – and left her friend to take the blame!

Having lost her mechanic's job at the garage as a result of police pointing the finger at her after Michelle's crash, Abi is convinced that her twins, who are already in care, would be better off without her. Heartbroken, she drinks herself into a hospital bed – at which point Tracy's guilty conscience finally forces her to admit that it was her who sabotaged Michelle's motor. Horrified by the awful admission, Abi sees red. However, her loyal son

Seb is the one who ends up gunning for Tracy, landing his mum in even bigger trouble...

"Abi just can't believe what Tracy is telling her when she admits to wrecking Michelle's car," sighs Sally Carman, who plays the falsely accused woman. "Abi reacts with anger – but she's so hurt and distraught. For a few seconds she can't actually register what Tracy is saying. It's the very last thing that Abi would ever have expected of Tracy!"

It was on Tracy's wedding day to Steve that – wrongly believing that Abi had slept with her husband-to-be behind her back – Tracy broke into the garage to mess with Michelle's vehicle and land her supposed mate in serious trouble. Tracy has felt terrible ever since finding out that it was Leanne who Steve really cheated with – but it's not until boozed-up and broken Abi is rushed to hospital that she at last finds the guts to come clean.

Tracy and Steve are shocked when they see Abi carted off to hospital

"Abi lost everything she had after Tracy interfered with Michelle's car," admits Sally. "Abi's kids are her heart and her weakness, and she knows that she's let them down.

So it's a mixture of her shame, her guilt, her fear and her lack of trust in herself that is always a catalyst for her spiralling out of control.

"Abi doesn't have the strength to fight for her kids, and because she can't deal with her head, she blocks it all out by drinking. That's as much as she can do, because she doesn't know any better."

Ironically, Tracy is the person whom paralytic Abi eventually reaches out to. However, by the time Tracy hears Abi's voicemail begging for help, and she rushes to find her mate, Abi is unconscious.

"When Abi comes round in hospital, Tracy tells her the truth about what she did," reveals Sally. "It's like cold water being chucked over Abi, and she throws Tracy out! But then Abi finds out that her contact with the twins has been suspended because of her relapse – and she's utterly devastated."

“Abi can’t deal with her head – and blocks it all out by drinking...”

When Abi announces that she intends putting the twins up for adoption, her son Seb snaps. Beyond disgusted by what Tracy has put his poor mum through, he lets himself into the florists' and sets about trashing his target's beloved shop. Hearing the commotion, Abi wades in to stop him – just at the moment when Ken arrives! He assumes Abi is the one to blame, and she proudly refuses to put him straight...

"Abi has already decided that the best thing she can do for the twins is to give them a happy, stable life – but for Seb, all she can do is protect him from a life like hers," explains Sally. "Not dobbing him in for vandalising Tracy's shop is her way of doing that. She doesn't want him to go down, because she's been to prison herself. Although she can handle it, she doesn't want that for her son."

CONTINUED OVER ➤

FROM PREVIOUS PAGE

Consequently, when the police turn up at the florists', Seb runs into the back room and Abi grabs cash from the till, prompting her immediate arrest. As she's hauled away by officers, Tracy tells Abi that she won't press charges – but it's too late, and Abi is destined to end up in court...

"After everything that's gone on, Abi isn't bothered about getting arrested," shares Sally. "She's so down anyway, and part of her feels as if she deserves it for being such a bad mother. Yet the fact she's saved her son from being arrested keeps her on the right side of it."

There's even more family trauma to come, however, as Abi is dealt a 16-week prison sentence for the crime. Meanwhile, Seb announces to social workers that he wants to adopt the twins – but when he's informed that he'll need to cut Abi out of his life in order to do so, will he go ahead and break his mother's heart forever?

Steve and Tracy are stunned by Amy's contract

Child's play!

Amy has her parents just where she wants them...

While Tracy is busy wrecking Abi's life, her daughter Amy has demolition plans of her own.

Sceptical of Steve and Tracy's recent marital reunion, the savvy teen is determined to keep her useless parents in line with a special contract, which she asks them to sign. Tracy is daft enough to scribble on the dotted line without even reading it, so she's horrified as Amy points out what it covers – declaring that she'll divorce her mum and dad if they break any of the terms!

When the penny drops that solicitor Adam has helped Amy to stitch her and Steve right up, Tracy is fuming. However, Adam insists that Amy drawing up such a contract is simply her way of letting her parents know that she's worried about their future – meaning Tracy is forced to grin and bear her daughter's rules. Later, as Tracy prepares a home-cooked meal for her daughter, Amy admits that all she's ever wanted is a normal family.

But with Tracy distracted by the hell of her falling-out with former pal Abi, is there any realistic hope that Amy's dream can come true?

It looks as though history is set to repeat itself in Walford as Mel prepares for a New Year wedding!

EastEnders has been busy filming on location for her big day – but it won't be Ian Beale that she ditches before the ink is dry on her marriage certificate! While her fiancé Ray waits patiently for his blushing bride, he presumably has no idea that Mel is well aware that he has a secret wife and child!

"Mel was seething when she discovered Ray's betrayal – and as she later prepared him dinner with a whopping big kitchen knife, there was no telling how she was going to serve up her revenge!" our Albert Square insider reminds us. "It seems ludicrous that Mel is really prepared to marry Ray – unless of course, she wants him to commit bigamy and bag himself a one-way ticket to prison. Either way, the potential for drama is huge!"

VINCENT'S FATE REVEALED!

Just as Kim has his baby...

The answers that all EastEnders viewers have been desperate for relating to Vincent Hubbard's disappearance will soon be with us, according to actress Tameka Empson, aka Kim.

Back in April, her hubby was all set to go on the run from gangster Aidan Maguire, when a crooked police detective tricked him into a car with the promise of witness protection, and went on to pull a gun on him.

What happened next remains a mystery. Was Vincent killed? Or was the corrupt cop simply trying to scare him off? One way or another, we're set to find out the truth in December...

"Where is he? Kim doesn't know," says Tameka. "However, there are lots of answers that will come about at Christmas."

For all we know, the truth about Vincent could be what sends Kim into labour! She was stunned to learn earlier this year that she is carrying their second child – and the hilarious Walford woman is ready to drop...

"Kim is pregnant, so obviously the time is approaching for her to have the baby," Tameka reminds us. "She had her last baby, Pearl, in the Queen Vic toilets, and this time it's going to be a very interesting location. We're keeping it local!"

"So that all happens, and you'll see how she copes with being a single mother – or not..."

Will Kim be back in Vincent's arms once more?

Second time unlucky?

AS MERCEDES PREPARES TO MARRY RUSS, GOLDIE LOOKS SET TO REVEAL THAT SHE SLEPT WITH THE GROOM...

Scorned Goldie is a ticking time bomb waiting to go off!

Mercedes gets ready to walk down the aisle and marry Russ for a second time this week – but with both bride and groom harbouring massive secrets, their big day is shaping up to be filled with big drama!

Both are determined that their marriage will work the second time around, despite the fact that Mercedes slept with Sylver in Magaluf, while Russ recently bedded Mercy's cousin, Goldie! So the scene is set for an explosive wedding...

"Mercedes has convinced herself that this is the right thing to do, even though her heart lies with Sylver," reckons actress Jennifer Metcalfe, who plays the not-so-blushing bride. "Russ is an amazing dad, he has loads of money – which is quite important to the McQueens – and he was Mercedes' first love. It just seems like the right thing."

Yet while Mercedes has vowed to put her fling with Sylver behind her, little does she know that her fiancé's jealousy drove him into Goldie's arms! Spurned Goldie is rinsing Russ for all he's got, in return for her silence – but when Goldie turns up wearing a necklace that Mercedes thought Russ had bought for her, her suspicions are raised.

"Mercedes thinks that Russ is acting really weird, and she does wonder what's got into him," Jen tells us. "But I don't think she would ever question his loyalty to her. She just thinks it goes without saying that Russ would never cheat."

So as their big day dawns, both Russ and Mercedes go all-out to make this the best day of their lives. All their friends and family are gathered for the celebration, as well as celebrity guests Linda Robson and Janet Street-Porter – what could possibly go wrong?

"There's a lovely montage of Mercedes thinking back to all her previous weddings," grins Jen. "Everyone's in good spirits, and the church looks so beautiful and extravagant."

"The setting is perfect," she adds. "But as with every other McQueen wedding, we have a

DRESS TO IMPRESS!

Star Jen tells us that she's not a fan of the meringues...

This will be the fifth time that Mercedes has popped on a wedding dress – having been hitched to Russ once before, married Malachy Fisher and Dr Paul Browning, and jilted Riley Costello at the altar! But after filming so many weddings, Jen is in no rush to get frocked up in real life...

"If I did ever get married myself, I wouldn't wear anything like that – wedding dresses are so uncomfortable!" reveals the star, who has a 17-month old son, Daye, with partner Greg Lake. "You can't sit down, you can't eat – I'd have the worst day of my life! I'd just want to wear something comfy, like pants and a baggy top."

number of secrets that could come out on the day – it's just a question of who's going to spill the beans!"

Our pictures show Goldie with a face like thunder, so we'd lay bets on her revealing her naughty night with Russ before the day is out! And Jen reckons that Mercedes would be in no forgiving mood if she discovered the truth...

"She would hit the roof!" she predicts. "It's one thing Russ cheating, but him cheating on Mercedes with her own cousin is unforgiveable. She wouldn't be able to move past that."

"If it does go wrong, though, it won't put Mercy off getting married again. Everyone else has a birthday every year – Mercedes has a wedding!"

AS SHE FIGHTS OFF LEON, CAN SHE COPE WITHOUT ADAM?

Still mourning the fact that her estranged husband Adam has moved on without her, Victoria runs into trouble with new date Leon this week – as he turns nasty in the middle of their supposedly romantic evening together!

Determined not to be pushed around, Victoria stands firm and demands that Leon leave. But after Robert arrives in the middle of their altercation and throws Leon out himself, will fragile Victoria be forced to admit that she badly needs her family's support now her hubby has left her high and dry?

"Victoria is in a lot of pain emotionally," sighs Isabel

Despite local drayman Leon being a well-known wrong'un, Victoria is determined to flirt up a storm with him in the Woolpack – even in the face of concerned looks from Diane and her close mate Matty. But after she takes Leon home, Vic soon regrets her decision.

Victoria's erstwhile husband has left her high and dry, but Adam Thomas, who played him, still keeps an eye on his on-screen wife – and has been quite vocal concerning her recent antics on his Twitter feed! Back in September, when Victoria shared her first kiss with Matty, Adam tweeted “Noooooooooooo” – but Isabel reckons it's all good fun...

“Adam's not happy, is he?” she chuckles. “But it shows he cares about me, so that's nice. I think it's funny. I miss him every single day I come to work, but we're still in touch. We have many a phone call, because he's not so great at the texting – so we know what's going on in each other's lives. And I like that he's looking out for Victoria!”

a bit of fun, a bit of attention, and to feel good about herself. She wants to forget about Adam, and she thinks the way to do that is to do move on.

“She takes Leon home to get him away from Diane and Matty's prying eyes, where they have a few drinks and start fooling around,” she continues. “Everything's good until he wants to take it further and Victoria doesn't – and then the fun stops.”

Insisting she's not ready for anything more, Victoria pushes amorous Leon away – which is when he starts shouting the odds. She's quick to tell him to leave, and then Robert comes piling in...

“Victoria thinks she's fine,” claims Isabel. “She's a bit confused by the way Leon reacts to her words, but she feels empowered when she puts him straight, believing that she's been able to make a choice. She thinks she's in control, and can deal with Leon until Robert turns up.”

While it remains to be seen whether Victoria will thank Robert for getting involved, it's clear that she's still struggling to cope without having Adam in her life. So might this sticky situation with Leon finally force her to face facts about her failed marriage?

When Robert turns up, he tells Leon to back off – but will Victoria be grateful for his intervention?

“I think it will,” agrees Isabel. “In Victoria's head, she's just having fun – but actions have consequences. She's still in love with Adam, and she knows he's seeing someone else. She's had absolutely no closure on their relationship, and she needs to talk things through.

“Seeing Adam again would make her feel better – to give her some closure and to make her feel safe. She's been through a lot, and doesn't need to fall into the arms of another man – so I'd tell her that it's time she looked after herself!”

Audrey fights for Maria!

A HAIRDRESSING AWARDS SHOW SEES HER MAKE A MOVE TO WIN BACK MARIA...

CORONATION STREET | ITV MONDAY

Stubborn Audrey finally wises up this week – and makes a public declaration of support to estranged protégée Maria.

The women have been at loggerheads from the moment Audrey dismissed Maria's idea of buying into the salon, provoking the hurt stylist to quit her job. But neither of them has been happy since they started fighting, and tipsy Audrey finally decides to make amends by publicly praising Maria at a hairdressing awards show – which leaves Maria wondering where her future lies...

"The truth is that Maria has always been like a daughter to Audrey, and they both miss each other terribly," says our Corrie insider. "Audrey is really struggling at the salon without her top stylist on board, and working with Claudia isn't exactly a bed of roses for Maria. Both of them said a lot of nasty things, stuff they didn't really mean, but it's not too late to forgive and forget."

Audrey's misery is further compounded when she has to make an appearance at an awards bash. As the recipient of a lifetime achievement gong, poor Audrey is worried she's going to feel like a dinosaur, and Claudia is relishing the chance to wind her up. Quite sensibly, Audrey decides that the only way to survive the whole sorry affair is to drink her way through it, so she hits the wine. By the time the judges announce her as the winner, Audrey's pickled, and all the booze has loosened her tongue!

"The speech is really quite something – especially if your name is Maria Connor," laughs

"Audrey is struggling without her top stylist"

How do you solve a problem like Maria? By lavishing her with praise, apparently...

our spy. "But it's sweet to hear Audrey talk fondly about Maria – how talented and lovely she is – and to wish her luck with her new venture. That's the recognition Maria wanted in the first place, so thank goodness Audrey has finally found the right words."

Of course, Audrey doesn't realise how miserable Maria

Sozzled Audrey gives a sizzling speech at the awards do is now she's working with Claudia. She blames her old pal for making their rift worse – but there's a nasty surprise in store...

Maria pays Audrey a visit, and the pair agree that they want to start working together again, only now on a more equal footing as partners. However, when Maria goes to break the news to Claudia, she's in for a shock. The cash Rita invested in the franchise won't be returned, meaning Maria will lose £12,000 if she chooses to go with her new business partner.

Can Maria really afford to leave Claudia for Audrey?

HOLBY CITY | BBC1 TUESDAY

The final showdown!

The terrible truth dawns on poor Hanssen this week, as the Holby team finally learns the true extent of Gaskell's corruption – and that he murdered their late colleague, Roxanna, to cover his tracks!

While all the pieces of the jigsaw fall into place, it's the professor's oldest and most trusted pal Hanssen who must confront him in one final battle – though only one of them will survive...

"After months of denial, the truth dawns on Hanssen and he can't let it go without challenging his old friend," explains actor Guy Henry, who plays him. "If you remember the flashback episode to when Hanssen

IT'S GASKELL VS HANSSEN – BUT WHO WILL LIVE TO TELL THE TALE?

Hanssen's world is destroyed as he realises Gaskell's true colours and Gaskell were younger, it was Hanssen who was depressed and waded into water – and Gaskell pulled him out. But can anyone be saved this time? You'll have to wait and see!"

Jac confronts Gaskell – and her life is plunged into jeopardy soon after Gaskell's wicked web of lies finally unravels after Jac demands that he operate on her, and remove the deadly neo-conduit that has resulted in the death of his other trial patients. Meanwhile, as Essie edges closer to discovering the professor's secret, he drugs her and locks her in a room just when her colleagues slowly begin to work out what Gaskell has been up to.

"Everyone is trying to tell Hanssen what they believe to be true, but he's spent so long in denial that when it finally hits him, it's absolutely devastating," shares Guy. "He can't believe that this friend who he has admired and loved for so long is so bad. The fact of the matter is, though, Gaskell is warped!"

While events spiral out of control, it's a race against time to find Essie, apprehend Gaskell and save Jac – who faces yet another desperate fight for life after the surgery leaves her unresponsive.

Will Gaskell succeed in silencing her in the same way that he did Roxanna? And what will become of him and Hanssen as they face off for the final time?

“We’re best friends in real life!”

Guy reveals the secret behind his on-screen chemistry with co-star Paul...

When we chat, Guy has a cold and needs a real doctor – but he’s still happy to wax lyrical about his cast mate Paul McGann, aka Gaskell!

Did you know from the start what was planned for Hanssen and Gaskell?

No – we were given the idea that he wasn’t going to be a goody, but I don’t think we realised how dark it would be. I was at the chemist in Tooting the other day, and Jo from behind the counter said, “It’s been riveting – like something out of a horror film”!

What can you tell us about the location for their final showdown?

Well, let’s just say that Paul was up to his nadgers in water – and I was up to mine in duck poo! We filmed it in the height of the summer, and it was genuinely exciting to do some real emotional stuff with Paul, as he and I were at drama school together nearly 40 years ago.

Did Holby chiefs know that when they cast Paul for this story?

No! We were best friends and in the same term at RADA. I absolutely adored him – he would come home with me to my parents’ house at the weekend and we would drink all of my father’s whisky! In a sense, there was no acting required for this story. Well, apart from the murdering aspect. Paul is a perfectly nice gentleman and has never behaved as dastardly as Gaskell has – not that I’m aware, anyway. And if I was, I would deny it, of course!

What did you think of the actors who were cast to play your young selves in the flashback episode?

I thought the lad who played me [Harley Viveash] was really wonderful. I thought it was quite interesting that Hanssen was the one smoking and drinking vodka – and that he was the naughty one. The bosses must have taken inspiration from me!

The battle for baby Abi turns nasty!

Max confronts his brother, Jack, when he learns of his treachery

MAX TAKES DESPERATE ACTION AFTER LEARNING OF JACK AND RAINIE'S BETRAYAL...

Max gets his hands on granddaughter Abi this week, as the truth of Rainie and Jack's fling threatens to scupper his custody battle!

The drama unfolds after Cora issues her daughter with an official statement from her solicitor, having learned that Rainie slept with her brother-in-law, and that her marriage to Max is a sham. But of course, he and Rainie have now fallen for each other for real – just as their dreams of playing happy families with baby Abi fall apart...

"When Max finds out about Rainie and Jack, he is very upset," sighs actor Jake Wood, who plays him. "The Brannings obviously have a bit of a history with this sort of thing – they are not the most loyal people when it comes to relationships! You'd think that maybe Max would be more understanding than most considering his own track record, but his feelings for Rainie at this point are genuine. It's a huge betrayal."

It was a sneaky video that Jack's daughter Amy secretly shot of him and Rainie that has been a ticking time bomb waiting to explode. However, viewers will have to wait and see how the information ends up in Cora's possession.

However, the consequences of the pair's naughty night were set in stone from the moment Jack and Rainie locked lips, and Max confronts his brother, before reading Rainie the riot act. But is Max's anger more to do with the damage Rainie has done to their custody case – or because she has hurt him more than he cares to admit?

"I think it's a little bit of both," muses Jake. "I don't think Max believes it will harm their chances in the long term – at this point, his plan is still on track. I think he just needs to know that Rainie is fully committed to their relationship and getting baby Abi. He wants to know where he stands."

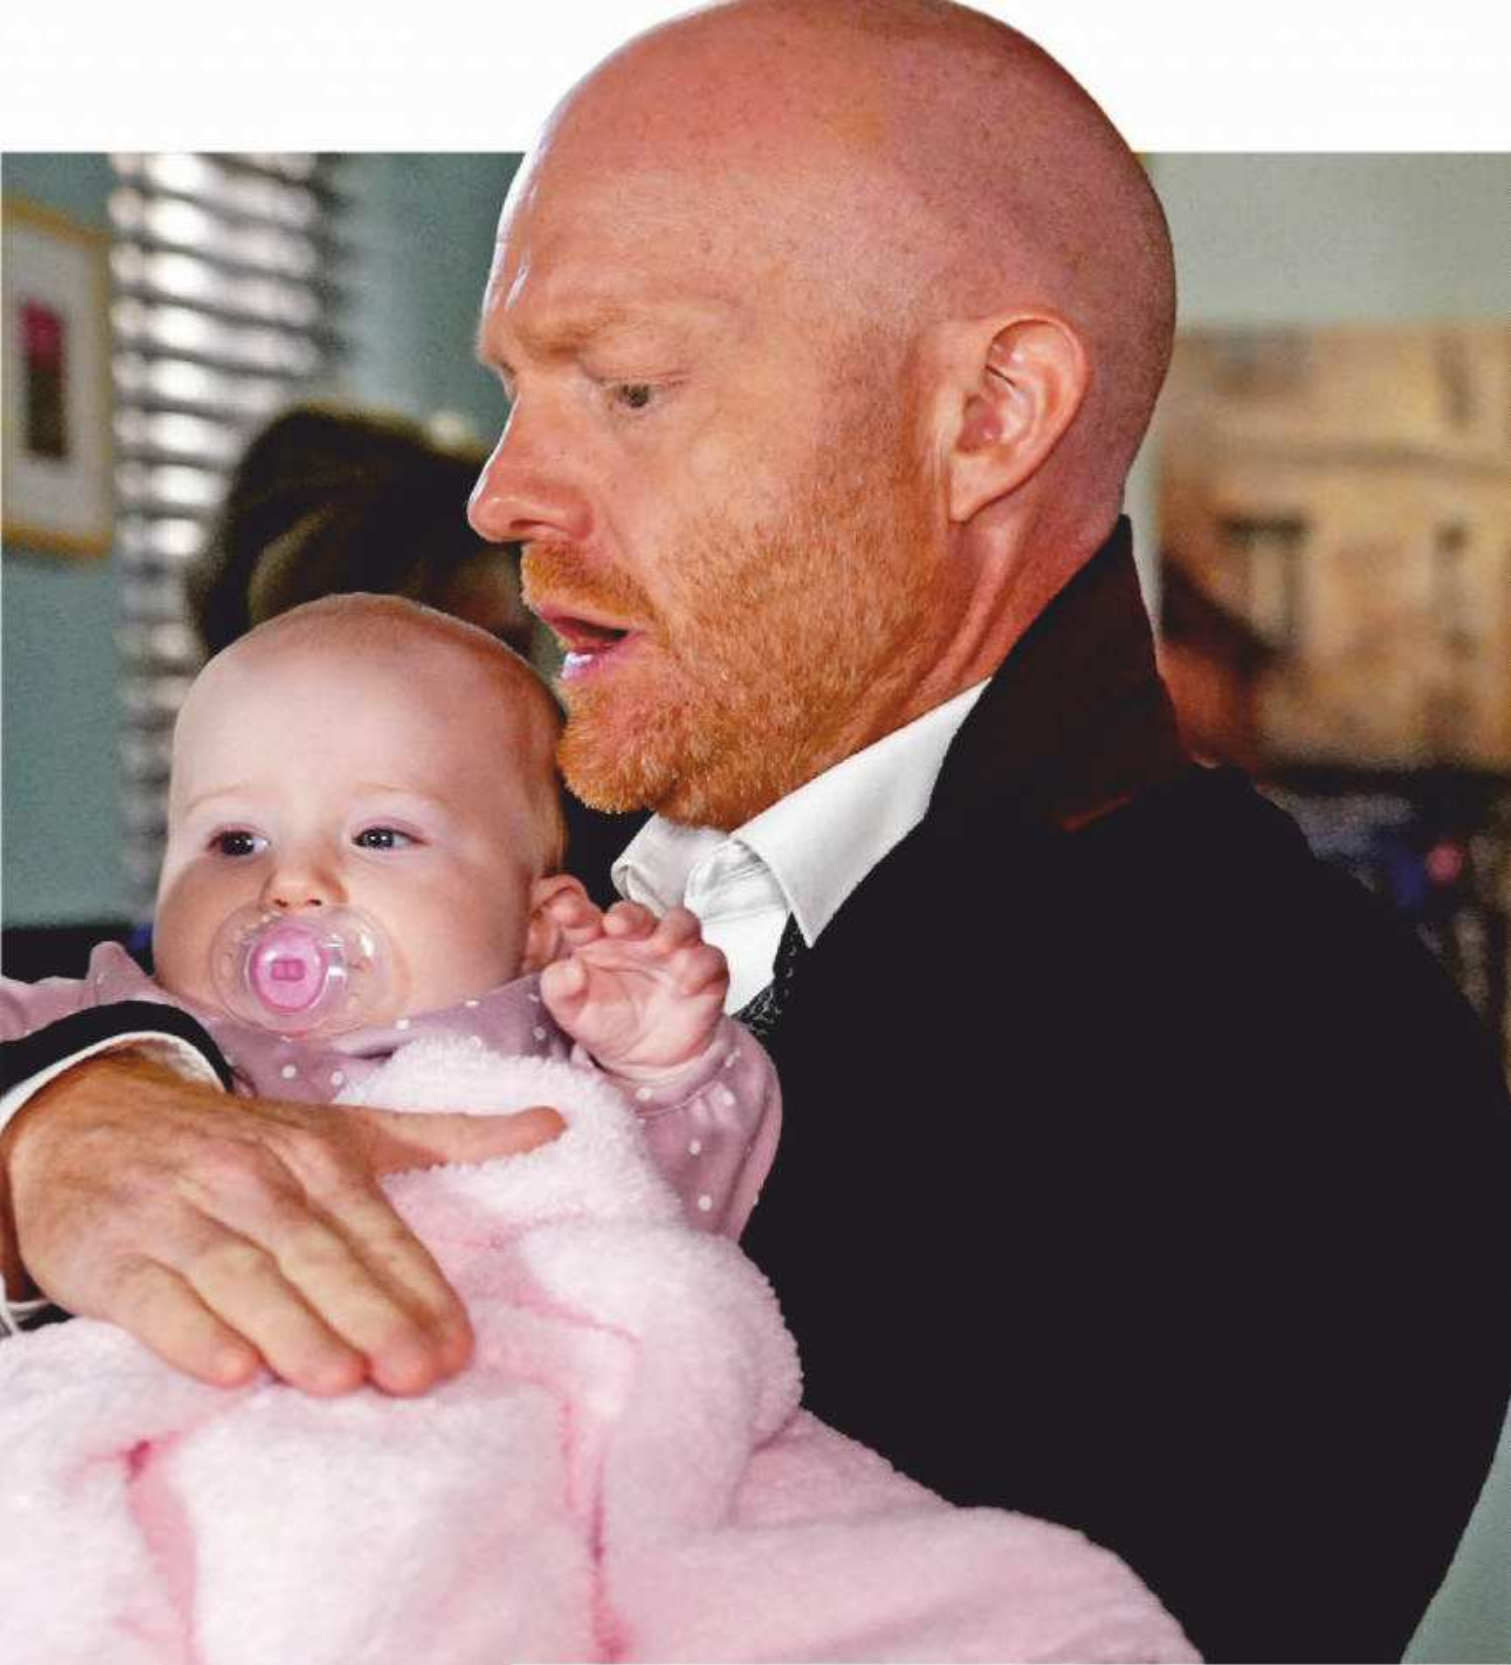

In a desperate attempt to limit the damage, Max plans to deny all of Cora's allegations. Meanwhile, Rainie is compelled to find out how her mother got hold of the damning evidence against her – leading to a furious showdown between the pair in the Vic. All hell breaks loose when Rainie sees red, prompting Cora to lash out and injure her daughter.

"There is an argument and Rainie ends up getting riled by her mother," explains Jake. "They have a very fiery relationship and Max isn't happy that Rainie is getting involved. It's not an ideal situation that they are fighting

“I NEED YOU, STACEY!”

In his hour of need, guess who Max runs to...

How they manage to clear it with her husband Martin we'll never understand – however, Stacey is back in the thick of things with ex-lover Max again this week, when he flees the Branning house to stay with her at No 31!

“I don't think that Martin is very pleased, to be fair!” winces Jake. “But Max and Stacey are always there for each other when they need to be, so it's natural that he gravitates back towards her friendship.”

So will they always be more than just good friends?

A quiet drink in the Vic soon descends into blind, ugly violence in public when they're both in the middle of a custody battle!”

Later, Max heads over to the Beale house where Cora has left little Abi, and picks her up, intending to get her away from the escalating situation. However, while he is collecting Abi's things, the police arrive – and heartbroken Max can only watch his granddaughter being taken away by social services.

As Rainie is rushed to hospital following her violent altercation with Cora, will Max ever forgive her for the events which have resulted in Abi being lost? And what does the future hold for the pair if they can't get her back?

David's in the doghouse after failing to deliver on Maya's birthday

EMMERDALE | ITV THURSDAY

Will Jacob make his move?

S mitten Jacob goes all out to try to catch Maya's eye this week – by throwing dad David under the bus!

The teen mistakenly believes he has a chance with teacher Maya, but he first needs to split up her and David. Jacob is a sensitive, lovely boy, yet his crush on Maya is making him act out of character. So, when he spots a chance to meddle in her and David's relationship on Maya's birthday, he takes it.

"It's not hard to make David look like a terrible boyfriend – he's always screwing things up," says our Dales insider. "This is the first birthday Maya and David have spent together as a couple, and all he manages to get is a bunch of half-dead flowers. Even a teenager with no clue about romance can do something better than that!"

Not only has he got her a rubbish present, David also manages to be late for Maya's birthday meal because he's held up with estranged wife Tracy. As Maya waits for her partner to arrive, Jacob takes great delight in telling her exactly where David is and with whom. Once David arrives, Maya gives him an earful, and Jacob lays into the stunned fella too.

While David's happy that his son and his girlfriend are getting on so well, he's a bit confused by how Jacob is behaving. All he knows for sure is that he

HE'S PLANNING AN ART SCAM...

Criminal Clive gets set to pocket a fortune this week – and only Frank can stop him.

The scammer has done a great job of convincing smitten Leyla that he's a good guy but, in reality, Clive's working out how to swindle his next victim.

When culture vulture Pollard mentions an art exhibition is being opened locally, Clive is all ears and invites Leyla, Frank and Megan to go to the event with him. From the moment he mentions it, Frank's suspicious of what Clive's real intentions are, and tries to dig deeper into his former cellmate's plan.

What Frank knows for sure is that Clive has no interest at all in the finer points of art criticism, nor does he wish to become a patron for local creatives. So as he and the rest of their party arrive at the venue, Frank very carefully watches Clive in action.

Everything becomes clear when Pollard spots a buyer

Frank can't believe that the con man would be so bold as to operate this scam on their doorstep, or that Eleanor – a consummate art appreciator – will even fall for his ruse.

Nick's three women!

HE'S CAUGHT IN HIS OWN WEB OF LIES WITH CARLA, LEANNE AND ELSA...

Crafty Nick continues to cause chaos with his fibs this week – as Carla clashes with him over the factory, mystery woman Elsa stalks him, and former flame Leanne remains oblivious to his secrets. But for how much longer will it carry on?

“Leanne is Nick’s Achilles heel,” sighs Ben Price, who plays the recently returned fella. “He had every intention of leaving Weatherfield, but then all the feelings came back. He thought he could just pop to the Street to make sure Leanne was okay – but when he saw the state she was in, he felt as if he was a knight in shining armour. And when she said she loved him, it triggered him. He feels as though he has a second chance, and that he needs to grab it. He’s very naive in some ways.”

Meanwhile, there’s more conflict at Underworld. Nick recently bought Peter’s share of the undies business, leaving him and Carla at loggerheads over how the factory should be run. Will Nick agree to be a silent partner, or will he refuse to play ball?

“Carla isn’t happy with him being involved in the factory,” reckons Ben. “She’s suspicious of him, and he’s wary of her. She’s convinced he’s up to something. She knows that Nick always has an ulterior motive, and is hiding things.”

Back at Victoria Court, Leanne tells ex-husband Peter she’s reunited with Nick, leaving him appalled. However, her mind is made up, and she’s not letting anyone rain on her parade.

“Leanne’s ready to give it another try, but is blissfully unaware of any other side of Nick’s life,” sighs Ben. “She brings him up to date with everything that’s happened to her, and he just crosses his fingers! He’s wondering what he can get away with. They keep coming back to each other, believing that things will be better.”

As the reunited couple plan a cosy night in, Elsa – Nick’s ‘business associate’ from Nottingham – is becoming highly dubious. Having tracked

BUT SHE LIES TO DANIEL ABOUT HER TREATMENT...

Pregnant Sinead decides she's not going through with the chemotherapy for her cancer this week, for the sake of her child. However, she lies about her decision to avoid worrying hubby Daniel.

The headstrong woman has decided that it's not fair to risk the health of her child, so is put in a very awkward position when the hospital calls her to arrange her next chemo appointment. After Daniel answers her phone, she agrees to attend, but secretly tries to think of a way to get out of it without him realising.

Later, Sinead goes off for a homeopathic massage, where she meets another young mum-to-be, Steff. Steff tells Sinead that she also has cancer, but has decided to ditch chemotherapy in favour of homeopathy and a strict, adapted diet. Keen to hear more about it, Sinead invites her new-found pal over for a brew while Daniel is out.

Nevertheless, Sinead still has to think of a way to stop her well-meaning husband from accompanying her to the hospital for her next session. She briefs Steff to ring her mobile at an arranged time, so she can pretend that it's a call from the nursing home, telling her that Flora is upset. The plan works perfectly, and Daniel rushes off to see Flora, leaving Sinead free to head straight back home!

When Daniel returns, Sinead tells him that the chemo was fine, and that she has decided to adopt a vegan diet to help her and the baby. Oblivious to her deception, Daniel says he'll change his eating habits, too. However, as Steff tries to persuade Sinead to come clean to Daniel about not having chemo, will she listen to her friend's advice?

wouldn't be taking any treatment for his illness.

“Dr Legg is 98 years old,” our Square sneak reminds us. “He knows his time is drawing near, and he wants to live out his final days with dignity, rather than lying in a hospital bed. Although Dot is initially troubled by her friend's decision, she comes to terms with it. However, when she receives a letter from Dr Legg asking for her help this week, she has reason to fear the worst.”

Panicking about the meaning of the letter, Dot is relieved as her friend calls round to see her and explains in more detail about what he really meant. After talking things over calmly with him, Dot realises that she has to respect his wishes. Later, she invites Jay round to the house so her dear friend can discuss plans for his own funeral.

“We all have to face the fact of our own mortality sometime,” laments our insider. “Dr Legg has lived a wonderful life, albeit one tinged with tragedy at times, but there's no point in him refusing to accept the inevitable. He's also come up with a few ideas about what he wants his funeral to be like. Although it's a very sad time for Dot, she does have the comfort of spending these days in his company, and to take a trip down memory lane.”

It quickly becomes clear to Simone that her daughter is hiding a big secret. But it's when Lisa thanks her family for sorting out her flight home that the plot really thickens – because nobody knows what she's on about! And later, Zack receives a threatening letter in the post, insisting that he withdraw his statement against Liam, or Lisa will be killed!

The fella and his mum work feverishly to keep Lisa out of harm's way – but the oblivious woman soon comes home to find her clothes in tatters. As Lisa demands answers, will the Lovedays work out who is targeting them?

Bob's wake-up call!

Alone and humiliated, it's time to face facts...

EMMERDALE
ITV MONDAY

Reality hits hard for Bob this week, as he realises that he's lost both the women in his life!

The chastened fella overhears his estranged wife Brenda telling Doug that she has no intention of ever taking back her husband, and that it would be better if Bob left the village for good.

Given that the couple split hours after exchanging their wedding vows, when it was revealed that Bob was having an affair with Laurel, Brenda's attitude is hardly surprising! However, with Laurel also having unceremoniously dumped him recently – in the most public way possible – it's begun to dawn on Bob that he's made a mess of his life.

So will he beg either of the women to give him another chance, or might he have sufficient self-awareness to realise that he's already humiliated himself enough?

Paul punches Gary!

Is the Lassiters' head honcho losing it?

NEIGHBOURS
Channel 5 FRIDAY

Paul's anger towards his daughter's new boyfriend finally gets the better of him this week – and he smacks Gary square in the jaw!

Paul has made it perfectly clear that he doesn't approve of Amy's new love match, so when David urges him to focus on the things in his life that he can control, he decides to ruin Gary once and for all! Calling on Gary's old criminal associate, Jeremy, Paul pays the crook to drag back Gary into his dodgy dealings. However, David gets wind of what his dad is up to, and warns off Gary – and when Gary later gloats to Paul that even David is turning against him now, Paul sees red!

But as he hits Gary in front of a shocked crowd, what will Amy make of her father's violent actions?

Dodgy date!

HOME AND AWAY
Channel 5 MONDAY

Lovebirds Robbo and Jasmine finally arrange to go on a date this week – but their plans are derailed by Tori's IVF dramas!

After Robbo arranges a romantic dinner cruise, Jasmine turns up dressed to the nines. However, just as they're about to leave, Robbo gets a call from Tori, asking if he can come to the hospital as quickly as he can.

As apologetic Robbo bails on Jasmine, will she be understanding of his situation? Or has he blown his final chance with her?

Baby bother!

CORONATION STREET
ITV FRIDAY

Robert stuns Michelle this week, when he suggests the time is right for them to try for a baby!

Michelle's nearest and dearest have been through the wringer since being targeted by bully Ronan – but while Michelle's son Ali was responsible for Ronan dying from his injuries after the car crash, the family is relieved as the coroner rules that Ronan's death was accidental.

Relieved to hear they're all in the clear, Robert takes the chance to proposition Michelle with his baby plan. Will she agree that it's the right time?

REGIONS & RADIO...

FAIR CITY

● Hayley assures Robbie that she doesn't want a serious relationship this week, just as Carol wrestles with her own feelings for the fella. Elsewhere, Jake returns home, causing tension between him and Will. Also, Wayne manages to badly insult Orla.

RIVER CITY

● Bob and Kim's wedding day arrives this week – but after Bob makes a shock confession, will they end up tying the knot? Meanwhile, Ellie stops short of revealing her pregnancy to AJ when he admits he doesn't to be a dad. Plus, Lydia returns to the site of the blast.

THE ARCHERS

● Lexi's strange behaviour is explained this week, as she drops a big bombshell. What could it be? Across the village, Peggy is excited for her birthday tea, but a confession from a loved one leaves her feeling heartbroken. Finally, Lynda's plans for the Christmas show cause chaos!

TIT FOR TAT

Corrie's Steve and Tracy must have the most well-balanced relationship in soap. He cheats on her – then she nearly kills a car full of people. And they're back on a level playing field again! They really are perfect for one another.

👤 | Kim

CAINING IT!

I laughed when Cain in Emmerdale suggested he could send Debbie, Sarah and Jack off on the run, and even put Sarah in a private hospital in Belgium, with a whole new identity. How does that work exactly, given the untold folders of medical notes Sarah must have? Do us a favour!

👤 | John, Brighton

And how might Cain pay for all this? He only owns half a small village garage!

BRIENNA FOREVER

What a stroke of genius from the Hollyoaks writers to put Sienna and Brody together. I think bonkers Sienna may have finally found her match in lovely Brody, who actually has just as much baggage as she does. Sienna is my favourite character, and I'd love to see her be happy in love at last.

Cain couldn't for the life of him remember where he left his keys

👤 | Nas, London

It's all fun and games until she locks him in a basement!

SHINING RUBY

When EastEnders announced that it was bringing back Ruby Allen, my first reaction was, 'Why?!' But I take it all back. Louisa Lytton is an amazing actress, and her consent storyline has raised all kinds of interesting issues – such as the conversation with Stacey this week about whether Ruby can ever enjoy an 'innocent' night out again.

👤 | Marcia, Nottingham

I liked it when Martin had an insight into how women are treated in clubs, when Jay and Robbie were ogling Bex. Meanwhile...

So Ruby is now staying with Stacey in her house? With Big Mo, Kat, Jean, Hayley, Martin, Lily, Arthur, Tiffany, Whitney and Uncle Tom Copley and all? Where does everyone sleep?

👤 | Bea

Arthur does a 'Harry Potter' under the stairs, and Mo hangs upside down from the rafters.

Sinead's story has seen the Barlow
family shine

FAMILY AT WAR

The special 'Barlow' episode of Corrie was fantastic. All those characters have so much history – they really know how to push each other's buttons, and they truly come alive as real people when they are fighting. No soap can touch Corrie when it has a big story for the Barlows!

👤 | Anna

We loved that episode, too! You'll find it singled out for special praise over on p98...

SUPER NANNY!

I'm loving Alice the crazy nanny in Neighbours! I know I really shouldn't, because she is making Sonya and Toadie's life hell, but she's like a proper panto villain! I keep expecting Nell to shout out, "She's behind you!"

👤 | Hannah

Now we know where Andrea gets her wickedness from!

DINGLE ALL THE WAY

I love Emmerdale, though I wanted to write in to say that I think the show has too many Dingles in it! I mean, I like the Dingles, but if you look at the list of actors in Inside Soap, half of the characters in the programme are now Dingles! We need some variety or else the village will be totally in-bred!

👤 | Gill

Don't worry... I suspect that 2019 will be the Year of the Tates!

The BIG DEBATE!

ILLUSTRATION: ROB DAVIS

HAYLEY'S HORROR HALLOWEEN

It wasn't what you might call an easy birth. Poor Hayley Slater stumbled around Walford while in labour, before ending up on the floor of a local crack den! Advice from readers flooded in...

Talk about being your own worst enemy! I was screaming at the TV (quietly!) telling Hayley to just tell someone and ask for help! It's been a few years now, but I can remember going into labour with my two, and I certainly wasn't up to steering a taxi in a three-point turn as the contractions came – let alone deliver my own child without help or pain relief!

👤 | Lucy

I know EastEnders is famous for being depressing, and it certainly did nothing to shake that reputation in this week's episodes where Hayley Slater gave birth. It was almost unbearably grim.

👤 | Camille

For one reader, it really was too much to take...

I watch EastEnders with my daughter (12) because it often leads us to having interesting conversations about adult issues. However, the amount of blood shown on screen this week was worthy of an 18-certificate horror film. I know it was Halloween, but I'm amazed the BBC allowed this programme to be shown. Hayley in her blood-soaked dress was like a victim from a slasher movie. I had no choice but to switch it off.

👤 | Mrs M Brown

Let's end this discussion on a happy note, though...

It's taken a long time, yet I actually really like Hayley now. She deserves a break, and some proper friends. She should move in with Masood's lovely auntie – who'll be glad to have her!

👤 | Cat G

SWAP SHOP

I'm sure I recognised the oncologist who was treating Sinead when she was in hospital recently in Corrie. What has he been in before please, Sarah?

👉 | Julianne

The actor in question is Raji James, and you will probably remember him playing Ash Ferreira in EastEnders from 2003 to 2005! He was also in The Bill as DS Vik Singh.

Raji has been a cop, a doctor and a gambling addict – the full range!

YOUR TRICKIEST SOAP QUERIES ANSWERED...

Imagine what Nancy's life would've been like if she'd stayed with Russ!

BAD BLOOD?

There was a scene in Hollyoaks recently where Nancy and Russ saw each other, and she said she had been avoiding him since he returned to the village. What's the history between the two of them?

👉 | Donna, Cambridge
Nancy and Russ actually used to be romantically involved! The couple split when he told her his plans to kidnap his son Max from the McQueens and flee the country – Nancy didn't agree with what he was doing. Just before Russ left, he begged Nancy to join him, but she refused. The pair hadn't been in contact since he left.

“Max and Stacey should get married!”

As fate dishes out fresh agony for Max, Jake Wood reflects on his alter ego's past, ponders his present – and looks to his future...

Max Branning never fails to surprise us. Just when you think there is nowhere else to go for a character so destructive and damaged, there he is – setting our screens alight as one of Walford's most watchable characters.

But what is it about the shameless love rat that we can't get enough of? Star Jake Wood – who continues to act his socks off as Max, while regularly topping polls as the UK's weirdest crush – is extremely modest when Inside Soap probes him on the secret to his character's success...

Lovely to chat to you again, Jake. What is it about Max that has kept you with EastEnders for so long?

I love playing him as much now as I did when I joined the show 12 years ago. Max has been through so many changes, hasn't he? And he's not boring to play, that's for sure! You just never know what he's going to do next, and I'm as equally intrigued as anyone else to see what he's going to be up to.

His time in Walford has been one hell of a ride, hasn't it?

EastEnders has been very kind to me – I've had fantastic storylines over the years. If you think back to everything Max has done, right back to his and Stacey's DVD reveal, Max being buried alive and then run over by his daughter, there's a whole list of dramas that he's been through. It's been amazing.

Can you remember what you thought when you found out

*“I love playing Max as much now as I did when I joined EastEnders...”*

that Rainie would return to the Square and team up with Max?

Yeah, it's one of those ideas that sounds far-fetched, but actually just feels right. Rainie came along at the right time for Max, and they provided something for each other that they both needed. Max was very lost after last Christmas following the death of his daughter, Abi, and Rainie is a bit of a lost soul as well.

What is Tanya Franks (Rainie) like to have as your new leading lady?

I love Tanya as an actress – I think she is amazing, and it's been great to have her back. When [EastEnders' executive consultant] John Yorke told me, I was excited. The audience has reacted well to it, too – they like them as a couple!

Would you like to revisit Rainie's addiction story, and explore how Max would cope with it?

I think that would be interesting. Max can be very solid when he needs to be, so I'd like to think that he would cope if that situation ever presented itself.

Max went to some dark places last year. Are you pleased he's gone in a calmer direction since?

Yeah, I don't think you can sustain a character at that kind of intensity for too long! They were amazing storylines for Max last Christmas, so it's been nice to regroup the character a little bit. This year has been quieter in comparison!

Did it feel strange with Jacqueline Jossa and Lorna Fitzgerald (who played Max's daughters Lauren and Abi) no longer on set?

They were here so long, the pair of them – especially Lorna, who had been playing Abi since she was 10 years old. There's always people coming and going on EastEnders – I'm lucky to have been here a while and I've seen a lot of changes, so you get used to the revolving door. But I miss working with Lorna and Jacqueline in particular.

It was great that Jo Joyner (who played Max's ex-wife Tanya) returned for their exit. After everything that has happened, who's the right woman for Max?

I'd say Tanya is probably the one he should be with. He had the perfect family there for about 10 minutes – but the problem with Max is that he can't see what's under his nose, can he? So, what a shame that it didn't work out. But you know, it's Max!

What about Max and Stacey? After all this time, the chemistry between them is still red-hot!

I've always thought that it would be interesting if Max and Stacey got married! I don't know if that's something EastEnders has planned or will ever do, but personally I think that would be really interesting. On a selfish level I hope they do more together, as Lacey [Turner, who plays Stacey] is a great actress. Maybe it'll happen sometime down the road!

Meanwhile, the future for Max remains uncertain – but Jake is busy with other projects that will soon see him take a little break from Walford. The 46-year-old, who is married to wife Alison and has two children, Amber and Buster, will be touring the UK in January with his boxing podcast, Pound For Pound, for a series of live shows.

How are your plans shaping up for the tour?

Very good, we have some exciting guests lined up. Boxing is a love of mine, and it's a pleasure to get people such as Tyson Fury, Tony Bellew, Carl Froch, Gary Lineker and Ray Winstone involved. People are loving the podcast, so we're looking forward to getting it out on the road.

How long do you expect to be away from Walford?

Just a couple of months. I'm doing Nativity! The Musical for a week in December in Oxford, and then the Pound For Pound tour. Another reason to take a break is to regroup and spend time with the kids. That's my favourite really, just being Dad at home – and then I'll be back to Walford with a bang.

Have you managed to keep up with your salsa dancing after people went wild for it on Strictly Come Dancing?

I haven't – and I always get asked to dance now! But unless you have an amazing partner like Janette [Manrara, who partnered Jake in 2014] teaching you, you're not going to do that every time you hit the dance floor. I'm watching this current series, though, and always support my friends on the show.

Back to EastEnders, are you excited for Max's future?

I'm very excited that Kate Oates [Walford's new senior executive producer] is joining us. She's done amazing things at her other jobs [as the boss of Corrie and Emmerdale] so we're really looking forward to what she brings.

Finally, did you ever expect to be on the show for #### 12 years when you started?

No, I don't think you can, can you? The Branning family signed a three-year contract initially, so it's worked out very well. I live not far from the studios, so in terms of a stable family life it's just been the perfect gig, and I'm thankful every day that I'm there. It's a dream job!

Laura-Jayne Tyler

The BIG Branning reunion!

Jake tells us that he's hoping to meet with the actors who played his on-screen clan before Christmas. Here's what they've been up to...

JO JOYNER

Tanya Branning

Never a day goes by without another rumour that Jo is returning as Tanya. But the actress has been busy this year playing Mandy Carter in the second series of Ackley Bridge.

JACQUELINE JOSSA

Lauren Branning

Star Jacqueline is living her best life after giving birth to her second daughter, Mia, and was recently snapped looking loved-up with husband Dan Osborne as they celebrated her 26th birthday.

CHARLIE CLEMENTS

Bradley Branning

Charlie returned to his old stomping ground at Elstree Studios recently for a guest part in Holby City, and is set to reunite with his former EastEnders co-star Rita Simons (Roxy Mitchell) in a new play, The House On Cold Hill.

LORNA FITZGERALD

Abi Branning

After cutting her acting teeth on EastEnders, Lorna received rave reviews for her recent stage performance as Eve in Her Naked Skin at the Salisbury Playhouse. So, the Branning bunch are busy bees – with plenty to catch up on next time they see each other!

“Laurie’s different from Dr Nate!”

FORMER HOME AND AWAY STAR KYLE PRYOR SWAPS SUMMER BAY FOR CHESTER...

I’m trying to rope in some of the other Hollyoaks guys to come surfing with me!” chuckles actor Kyle Pryor, aka newcomer Laurie, as we quiz him about how he’s settling back into UK life. “I’ve found a nice surfing spot in Abersoch in Wales, but I don’t have any transport – so the more people I can get, the more likely it is that I’m going to be able to go!”

The former Home and Away star (who played Hunky Dr Nate) might be in for a rude awakening once he realises that Abersoch isn’t as warm as the Sydney beaches he’s used to! But when we sit down for a chat about his first few months at Hollyoaks, the Brit-born star tells us he’s loving being back on home soil...

How are you finding life in Liverpool?

It’s a big lifestyle change, of course – a culture shock! But I love this city, and the weather’s been pretty kind to me since I’ve been here. I’ve been amazed by how friendly and welcoming everyone is. I can definitely see why people stick around.

Your character, Laurie, arrived last week. Tell us about him...

He’s Sinead’s husband – she just kind of disappeared, so he ended up pursuing her to Hollyoaks. And he arrived in the village to find a scene that he wasn’t too impressed with! There are fireworks from the get-go – it’s a pretty exciting entrance.

PHOTO: GETTY

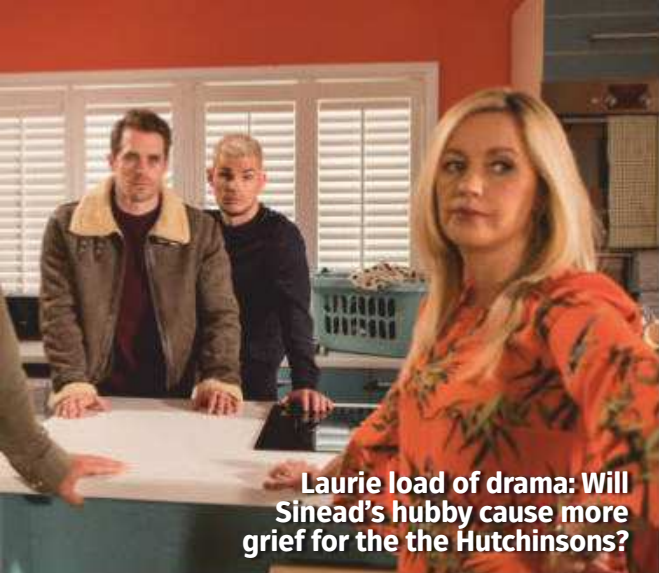

Full Ste-am ahead: Kyle has thrown himself into this new role

Hot bod: We’re delighted Kyle is back on our screens!

Laurie load of drama: Will Sinead's hubby cause more grief for the the Hutchinsons?

What's their relationship like?

Laurie is a teacher, so he's quite different from Sinead. He really enjoys her nature – even though she's very dramatic in her approach to life, he appreciates her honesty. What you see is what you get.

Laurie seeks Sami's legal advice about something this week. What can you reveal about that?

I won't say exactly what the situation is, but it's someone from his past – a previous school he has worked at. Basically, people won't know whether this accusation is fact or fiction. Laurie speaks to Sami about what his options are, because he doesn't want this to follow him to the village.

We sense that Laurie's quite different from Dr Nate...

Yes, he's very different! That's one of the reasons I wanted to take this part in Hollyoaks, because Nate was very much straight down the line – you knew where you stood with him. There's definitely a few more skeletons in Laurie's closet, that's for sure! He sees moving to Hollyoaks as a way to escape his past, get away from some negative stuff and start afresh.

Will any Home and Away fans who are watching be shocked by Laurie?

I hope so – if I'm doing my job right, then they definitely will be! This is really playing against type for me, but I think these kind of characters are the most fun to get into. You can stretch the boundaries a bit further. And also it's exciting to be playing someone who causes lots of drama!

Who in the Hollyoaks cast have you bonded with so far?

I share a flat with Jude Monk McGowan [Liam], and he plays a villain on the show, so we've been exchanging a few ideas about that! But everyone's lovely – there are people that you go for a couple of drinks with, some people you go for training sessions with, yet pretty much everyone hangs out together. I feel very fortunate to be working alongside such a great group of people.

NEIGHBOURS | Channel 5 THURSDAY

DANGEROUS liaisons!

Neighbours star April Rose Pengilly tells us that Chloe is in way too deep with Pierce...

Most women would jump at the chance to be whisked away on a romantic break with a handsome, rich man. Yet when charming Pierce insists that Chloe accompany him on a business trip to a snowy resort this week, she doesn't seem glad about the prospect!

"Chloe is surprised by the offer, and not at all keen," reveals April Rose Pengilly, who plays her. "She has just told Pierce that she feels uncomfortable with the direction the relationship is going, so this is definitely not what she expects."

Despite her reservations, Chloe is forced to accept Pierce's invitation, knowing that Lassiters' future depends on her keeping him sweet. However, he seems more interested in getting closer to her than he does on doing any big business deals!

"Chloe doesn't feel ready for a relationship with Pierce, but he has completely fallen for her," says April. "And Pierce is accustomed to getting what he wants. He's probably not too familiar with rejection!"

Hoping to deter Pierce from thoughts of any long-term romantic prospects, Chloe confides in him about her Huntington's diagnosis. But that just makes him even keener to look after her, forcing Chloe to take drastic action – and leave the cabin at the dead of night!

"Chloe only agreed to the trip because she thought she could get Pierce to sign the contract for Terese," sighs April. "So when it becomes clear he's not going to sign on the dotted line, she feels very helpless and overwhelmed."

But as Chloe flees into the dark and cold, is she putting herself in terrible danger?

BEST PARTNERSHIP

Danny Dyer &
Kellie Bright
Mick & Linda Carter
EastEnders

Join us for the second part of our Inside Soap Awards coverage – with exclusive photos, interviews and gossip from the winners...

PHOTOGRAPHY DAN GOLDSMITH

This is the one award that Danny and I have always wanted to win, so we're thrilled!" grins Kellie Bright, as she accepts Inside Soap's trophy for Best Partnership on the night of our awards party. "We've been working together for five years now – it was our anniversary in October – and I've been celebrating all day!"

With super-busy Danny unable to make the Inside Soap Awards bash, beaming Kellie is thankful enough for the pair of them – particularly since this is the first time that they have been voted most popular on-screen couple. However, we are able to catch up with Danny the following day, to find out his reaction...

"We have a special bond, me and Kellie," he says. "We came into the show together, and have been here since day one – so this is something I cherish, especially because the two of us have never been acknowledged for our characters' partnership in this way before. We've worked really hard together, so we're happy to have won."

However, with Kellie busy celebrating the win with her EastEnders co-stars on our big night, she's mortified to admit – via a hilarious Twitter video the next day – that the trophy had unfortunately gone 'astray'! And Danny grasses his beloved co-star right up...

"You're all so lovely, all of ya," he declares proudly. "And we'd like to show you the award in our hands, but unfortunately... She forgot it! Yeah, cos she was... How can I put it? She was battered last night... She was celebrating!"

Inside Soap is very happy to report that the missing award has since been retrieved and safely returned to its relieved and rightful owners – and if you're lucky, you might soon be able to spot it somewhere very familiar.

"Thank you to everyone who voted," gushes Danny. "I know we were up against some stiff competition, but we never take your love and affection for granted, so thank you."

"We're going to be a nightmare at work now!" laughs Kellie. "We're genuinely chuffed – it's so exciting. And who knows? The award could just end up making a little cameo appearance behind the Queen Vic bar... It might do!"

"We have a special bond, me and Kellie!"

“We want Raf to come back as a ghost!”

The image of Raf Di Lucca being shot dead still haunts us to this day, but at least the Holby gang can console themselves with the hospital shooting being voted as your Best Drama Storyline! Stars Alex Walkinshaw (Fletch) and Kaye Wragg (Essie) are absolutely thrilled to be joined by their former co-star – and last year’s Strictly Come Dancing winner – Joe McFadden (Raf) to collect the award...

Hey, guys! So, tell us how it feels to have won...

Kaye Amazing! But also bittersweet at the same time, as we don’t have Joe with us any more – although at least he’s gone out on a high.

Joe Some people [Looks across at former co-stars] have enjoyed seeing me killed, which is a little bit worrying!

Alex I’ve taken no pleasure in it whatsoever.

Kaye Honestly, we sit by Raf’s memorial weeping quite a lot!

Did you find it traumatic when you were filming Raf’s death scene?

Joe Not at all. We were all giggling, to be honest!

Alex At the time, Joe was training for Strictly, so he was busy doing his pas de bourrées and jetés between scenes!

Were you excited to learn that you would be reunited to collect this award?

Kaye Yes! I was so excited as it’s hard to get together when we’re all so busy.

Alex I haven’t seen Joe since taking my daughter to see the Strictly tour. She loves him!

Joe, do you think you might fancy returning to Holby as a ghost?

Joe I’d love it, but I don’t think that can happen...

Alex Arthur Digby came back. You could come back for us!

Kaye We could have a special episode, just for the three of us. You’re tap-dancing down the corridor and I hear the tapping in the distance...

Joe ...and then you could join in with me, and we’ll all do a big routine together!

Can you give us any hints about what’s going to be coming up in the show?

Kaye It’s Holby’s 20th anniversary in January, so there are going to be loads of surprises over the next few months. If you’re a massive Holby fan and you’ve watched the show from the very beginning, you’re going to love this coming year!

BEST

The hospital shooting
 Holby City

There was stiff competition in our Best Drama Star category this year – but Casualty's Chelsea Halfpenny (Alicia) wrestled the gong from her co-star and last year's winner, George Rainsford (Ethan). And she's delighted...

"I mean, he can't win it again, can he?" chuckles the actress, as we ask how she feels to have beaten her on-screen love interest this time round. "Two years in a row? That just wouldn't be fair!"

It's no surprise that Chelsea won this award by a country mile – her character Alicia has been to hell and back this year, after being raped by her colleague, Eddie. But despite the harrowing nature of the storyline, Chelsea has loved having something so challenging to play.

"It's been amazing," she grins. "All you want as an actor is to be given a story that you can really get your teeth into, something that's very difficult. It's been so rewarding to play.

BEST
DRAMA
STAR
Chelsea Halfpenny
Alicia Munroe
Casualty

"I'm so proud of this story – it's been amazing!"

"I'm really proud of this plot, and I'm proud that it was done so authentically," adds Chelsea. "It raised awareness for people who have been through this kind of thing in real life, and I'm hoping that it's helped people to speak out about it."

Chelsea tells us that she's been overwhelmed by the feedback she's had from Casualty fans about Alicia's experience. Yet while it's nice to know that you've struck a chord with the viewers, winning an award is also pretty sweet!

"I've just bought a flat, so I'll probably put my award in the display cabinet above the TV," considers the star. "Every time someone comes in, they'll go, 'What's that?', and I'll say, 'Oh, just a little award I won!'"

Chelsea was clearly chuffed to bits with her win, but she declared that she wouldn't be celebrating too hard – as she's getting sensible in her old age!

"I have calmed down in the past year or so," she admits. "I'm normally rubbish after a big night out, the next day is a complete write-off. So now I give myself a curfew, and make sure I drink lots of water. I'm truly becoming an adult!"

“The thrill of winning never wears off!”

The Dales’ Aaron is adored by hubby Robert, sister Liv and mum Chas – and Danny Miller, who plays the Dingle fella, has proved himself equally popular with Inside Soap readers, as he steps up to collect our very first Soap Superstar award!

This brand-new category is dedicated to the stars you love to love – so we asked you to nominate your favourite soapies and tell us why they’re your top telly talent. Our Danny garnered comments ranging from, “His portrayal of Aaron has given hope to people facing issues in real life,” to, “He’s the best crier on TV” – and more than a few saying, “He’s fit!” And it’s clear that Danny is thrilled to have been voted to win the prize...

Congratulations on being one of the first winners of our newest award!

Thank you! I saw the category on Twitter, but didn’t know about it before. I find it very overwhelming people have been voting for me. Being lucky enough to win is still a thrill – the novelty never wears off!

It’s not the first award that you’ve won – where have they all ended up?

My mum usually takes them off me! But she’s started slyly giving a few of them back... They never go in a box not to be thought about again, though. I’m really proud of these things.

It’s also not the first time you’ve made it along to the Inside Soap Awards after-party...

There’s nothing I don’t like about the Inside Soap Awards! It’s very relaxing – all people really want is to celebrate the performances and a year of working hard. It’s a good night out, and spirits are lifted here!

Are you missing your former co-star and good mate Adam Thomas (Adam Barton)?

Yeah, there’s no one for me to party with, ha ha! I’ll just have to grab hold of Quinny [Anthony Quinlan, who plays Pete Barton] and persuade him along instead...

What do you reckon has sparked your – and Aaron’s – popularity?

Four or five years ago, when Aaron was embroiled in his really dark years, was a time when mental health wasn’t spoken about as much as it is now. Plus, Aaron coming out was a story ahead of its time. I think that people could relate to that, and it’s something people could rewatch.

Are there any other Emmerdale characters you’d like to play?

Graham Foster. Andrew Scarborough, who plays him, is a magnificent actor and a good lad. He makes it look easy. He’s so good at playing sullen, considering he’s not moody or sullen at all. He has this great laugh, which I love! He’s brilliant.

SOAP SUPERSTAR
Jennifer Metcalfe
Hollyoaks

“I want my son to know that women work too”

Hollyoaks star Jen Metcalfe (Mercedes) is no stranger to an Inside Soap award – but she’s thrilled to have been named our first female Soap Superstar this time round...

“I didn’t even know I was up for an award, so this is great,” she grins. “Being called a superstar is very cool, and I’m really happy that people have chosen me. I think that it’s just about loving yourself and how you look.”

Our readers told us that Jen is “the original McQueen – and definitely the best!”, and “she’s a great mum with a positive outlook”. But Jen has her own theories about why people love her.

“The Hollyoaks writers are so good to me, they always put me at the forefront of the show,” she beams. “But I have to give myself a little bit of credit for making Mercedes such an all-round, great character as well.”

Jen admits that coming back to work after having her son Daye – who is now 17 months old – was tough, but it’s important to set a good example.

“I want him to know that women work – Mummy has a life too,” she explains. “That’s the outlook we have in our family, and it works for us.”

Jen tells us that the fans are always quick to forgive Mercy’s mistakes – although that may be set to change...

“There’s something coming up soon that I can’t forgive her for,” she teases. “I’m a little bit nervous, actually – it’s the worst thing she’s ever done!”

“The day goes quicker when you’re laughing!”

Thanks muchly. When do I get Rear Of The Year, please?” quips the suitably amusing Simon Gregson on discovering he’s scooped our Funniest Male gong for the third time. While Inside Soap couldn’t possibly comment on Simon’s bottom, we’re happy to report that he’s back in the comedy game again this year, having lost the Funniest Male crown to his equally deserving Corrie co-star Joe Duttine (Tim) in 2015 and 2016, and Emmerdale’s Dominic Brunt (Paddy) last year...

“I’m very privileged,” grins the star, who’s been cracking Steve’s jokes since 1989. “It’s always good to know how much everyone enjoys silly Steve. The two of us share the same sense of humour – although thanks to the talented Coronation Street writers scripting his jokes, he’s a lot funnier than I am!”

Despite there being little for Steve to laugh about in 2017 – after he and ex-wife Michelle lost their newborn son Ruairi – his recent reunion with other ex-wife Tracy has proved hugely entertaining this year. And although there was nothing very funny about Steve and Michelle’s divorce, Steve’s co-star Kym Marsh – who plays Michelle – remains proud of her former on-screen husband’s special talent...

“He’s got funny bones, that one!” she shared in her OK! magazine column. “I sometimes find it hard working with him because he’s so hysterical, and it’s very difficult to keep a straight face!”

Meanwhile, with Steve and Tracy’s canny teenage daughter Amy having seemingly inherited her parents’ quirky take on life, it looks as if the laughter will continue in the McDonald family household for the foreseeable future.

“It’s nice to do something serious and away from ‘slapstick Steve’ – but it’s always really good to get back to the funny stuff,” admits Simon. “Steve is a great character to play, and I love the comedy side of things, so it’s nice that viewers feel the same way.

“The day goes quicker when you’re having a laugh at work,” continues the star. “I’m really chuffed and humbled to have won this award again – so thank you very much!”

“Everyone knows someone a bit like Gemma!”

FUNNIEST FEMALE

Dolly-Rose Campbell

Gemma Winter
Coronation Street

It's a double whammy for Dolly-Rose Campbell, who has scooped our Funniest Female trophy two times on the trot. When we first met wayward Gemma back in 2014, there was nothing very funny about her troubled life – but since moving to the cobbles, she has lit up the Street with her wacky outfits and quirky turn of phrase. Even heartbreak at the hands of her fancy ex-fiancé Henry couldn't suppress Gemma's sense of humour for long – so no wonder she's your queen of comedy once more...

You've been voted Funniest Female again – did you expect it?

No, not at all, it's always a surprise – and I'm really pleased. It's always nice to be voted for, and to know that the audience are enjoying watching Gemma and she's popular. So thank you very much to everyone – and please keep watching!

Who would you have voted for?

I'm in good company with all the other nominees in this category, but I like Tameka Empson [EastEnders' Kim]. She's always very funny, so I'd have voted for her. I've not met her yet, as I don't get out much – I'm a bit of an old-timer!

Why do you think Gemma strikes such a chord with the Coronation Street viewers?

Well, she's had her heart broken recently, and I think people care about her. And I think everyone knows somebody a bit like Gemma. I've based different aspects of her on many different people.

What have been your favourite Gemma moments this year?

She's a fun character, and the stories that I get to play with her are all really enjoyable. The good thing about Coronation Street is that there are plenty of other comedy characters to bounce off. And the more experiences Gemma has, the more we learn about her in the process. I've been very lucky!

Who makes you laugh?

Melanie Hill, who plays Cathy. We share a dressing room together, and I'd say that I'm her biggest fan!

Your co-star Simon Gregson (Steve) has won Funniest Male – would you like more scenes between Steve and Gemma?

They've not had much together so far, have they? But it would be cool if they could go on an adventure together somewhere. That would be hilarious.

Do you know where you might keep your award yet?

I've not got that much room at home, so maybe I'll put it in my dressing room.

Can you tease us about what's coming up for Gemma?

There's lots of different stuff happening over Christmas – a bit of a blast from the past, which is quite revealing. It might show us a few different elements of Gemma's character, and explain some things about why she's like she is. There's plenty more to come!

STAR Watch!

Proud parents!

HOLLYOAKS STARS SHOW OFF THEIR CHILDREN...

It was baby mania at Menagerie in Salford, Manchester, as Hollyoaks yummy mummy Steph Davis (aka Sinead) was joined by best pal and co-star Kieron Richardson (Ste) with their teeny tots in tow. Posing with their gorgeous offspring at the Doona Infant event, Steph – who has recently returned to the soap following a break of three years – showed off her adorable son, Caben-Albi, who she gave birth to after leaving Hollyoaks in 2015.

Kieron was also joined by his husband Carl Hyland, with the pair looking ever the super-proud dads, as they were all smiles with their extremely cute twins Phoebe and Chase, who arrived in May last year.

BABY BYE!

It's babies all round as James Bye (Walford's Martin) recently revealed he is set to add a third son to his family with wife Victoria. They shared news of their 'miracle baby' after fears Victoria couldn't conceive again, having been diagnosed with endometriosis.

Meanwhile, Corrie's Jennie McAlpine (Fiz), recently spotted picking pumpkins, has confirmed she's given birth to a baby girl, Hilda. Congratulations!

SALON SISTERS!

She's a talented actress on the Street playing Corrie's Angie, and it seems talent runs in the Ekanoye household as Victoria's sister recently opened her own salon.

Hair and make-up artist Natasha opened her new business – Liberte – in Lancashire, and was joined by her proud sister and their mum Abimbola on its opening night. The Ekanoyes were joined by a bevy of Corrie stars, including Lucy Fallon (Bethany) and Faye Brookes (Kate), who indulged in all the pampering treatments!

Simply the CHEST!

They may be full-time actors and dads, but that doesn't mean these two are lacking in the fitness department!

EastEnders' Danny Dyer looked 'a sort' as his alter ego Mick Carter might say, when he played in a charity football match.

Meanwhile, in the Dales, Sam Dingle has been hiding a striking set of muscles under that green anorak of his, as actor James Hooton unveiled his buff bod on Twitter – much to the delight of his fans and co-stars!

Just take a look at that – extraordinary!

Earlier this year, he got the chance to fulfil a lifelong ambition by climbing Mount Everest. But although Ant is an experienced climber, unexpected conditions led to him fearing for his life. And this week, a one-off documentary charts Ant's perilous journey to the summit and back again...

The Iceman Cometh: Ant was thrilled to take on the challenge

"I wasn't excited about standing on the summit – it was the thrill of the unknown," Ant tells Inside TV. "Experiencing a lack of oxygen, the Death Zone, standing in the centre of the Khumbu Icefall watching avalanches – that was what attracted me to Mount Everest."

It's at this point in the conversation when Inside TV can't help but enquire whether taking on a climb where the fourth and final camp is literally referred to as 'the Death Zone' isn't the sort of thing where you stop and question the sanity of what you're doing... Ant admits he did find it quite a strange experience – but one with a fantastic pay-off.

"When you get to Camp Four, no one really wants to be there," reveals Ant. "It's a zone where everyone's morbid – nothing's there, and people are like zombies. Then going up from there to the summit, you're going past dead bodies and it's almost like discovering a whole new world. But all of a sudden you come above the cloud cover, you can see the sun, and you have this amazing feeling of elation."

Upon reaching the summit, however, Ant and his crew were beset by an intense, life-threatening storm – and getting back down to safe ground was suddenly far from a foregone conclusion.

"There was a stage where I thought, 'I'm done, I'm not getting off this mountain,'" recalls Ant. "But, you know, I practice what I preach, so I had a word with myself. I said, 'Get a grip of your mind, get a grip of your body, you need to get off this mountain and back to your family,' and then pure survival instinct kicked in. It was also completely out of my hands. It didn't matter how capable I was, it was the most vulnerable I've ever felt in my life, because there's one way on and one way off – and there were 15 people in front of me."

One surprising – and slightly worrying – aspect we'll see in Tattoo Fixers' Alice Perrin picks her dream viewing...

The Inbetweeners

I watch so much telly!

I really love Unforgotten, and I'm a bit obsessed with The Handmaid's Tale – I even get goosebumps just thinking about it.

Last year, me and my boyfriend were in the Philippines and we were meant to be going up a mountain, but we ended up staying up till four in the morning the night before, watching all of it! We didn't make it to the mountain!

If it's ever on, I will always watch

The Inbetweeners. It just makes me die laughing every time. And I love Fleabag as well – I love that kind of British humour. When I try to get people to watch it, they're like, "That sounds weird." And it is, but that's why it's so good!

I love Friends! I don't know how many times I've watched every single episode – apart from the very last one, which I never watch because it makes me cry so much! If I've watched a scary film and I'm too scared to sleep, I put

Friends on. If I feel ill, I put Friends on. If I'm hungover, I put Friends on!

Growing up, I used to really love

Blue Peter, but it was annoying 'cause my brother never wanted to watch it. And my treat on a Saturday night was to watch Blind Date – that was like, "You're watching a grown-up programme!"

I would love to be an extra on The Walking Dead as a zombie. Once I was at a sleepover and I was taking all my make-up off, but I left it down my face and messed up my hair, and I started going up to my friend pretending to be a zombie... I made her cry!

Peak practice: Even an experienced climber such as Ant can face hurdles the film is that a number of the people attempting to climb Everest at the same time as Ant weren't anywhere near skilled or experienced enough, increasing the danger for everyone.

"I believe the biggest killer on the mountain is other climbers," muses Ant. "You've got the altitude, unpredictable weather, then incompetent climbers – people who pay thousands to be dragged up the mountain, then when it hits the fan in the Death Zone, guess what? There's nothing you can do about it, mate.

"If you can't help yourself, you put other people's lives at risk, too – which was proven on that day..."

What do you mean you're NOT watching...

THE A LIST | BBC iPlayer

FOR YOUNGER READERS who are starved of new dramas to watch, we can heartily recommend this new series from the BBC. It centres on a group of teenagers who are spending their summer at a camp on a remote Scottish island. While it all starts out seeming like a standard battle of social supremacy between two alpha females, by the end of episode one it takes on a different direction entirely, when it becomes clear that something otherworldly is going on. It's a gripping yarn – and there's a bonus for Doctors fans as Lisa Ambalavanar (Ruhma's daughter Alia) plays lead character Mia.

CHILDREN IN NEED 2018 | BBC1 FRIDAY

THE HOSTS OF THIS YEAR'S APPEAL SHARE THEIR HIGHLIGHTS OF WORKING ON CHILDREN IN NEED...

It's time to dig deep once again this week as the BBC's annual fund-raiser for disadvantaged children and young people in the UK hits the airwaves on Friday. Treats include a Strictly Boyzone special – where the chaps attempt to lay the ghosts of their infamous appearance on Ireland's The Late Late Show to rest – an exclusive preview of the Call The Midwife Christmas Special, and the obligatory song-and-dance spectacular from the EastEnders cast.

New boy Rob Beckett joins the presenting line-up of Graham Norton, Tess Daly, Ade Adepitan, Mel Giedroyc and Rochelle and Marvin Humes. Here, the hosts tell us why it's such a special night...

What are you most looking forward to about being part of this year's telethon?

Mel I think it's one of the most special nights on the BBC. It just feels like a brilliant coming together of people – I think it brings out the best in people, actually, as well as being really good fun with loads of entertainment. I'm very proud to be a part of it.

Rochelle I look forward to it every year – the atmosphere is always electric in the studio and we just have so much fun, but all in the name of BBC Children In Need. The studio audience is always brilliant, and by the time we get to the live show, we'll have seen how well the fund-raising is going, and everyone is really positive. It's just a lovely atmosphere.

Why is this such a special night for each of you?

Ade Children In Need and I have got history – I grew up playing wheelchair basketball at Stoke Mandeville, and I remember when I was in the Junior Championships and Children In Need used to host part of its show there. They would support the players and help us with getting money for new chairs and sports equipment.

Rochelle I grew up making cakes at school on non-uniform day and wearing Pudsey ears – and my kids do it now! To be part of that is just great.
Rob Me and my family would watch it all together – it was a huge event in our house growing up. I'm truly honoured to be asked to be involved in a British institution.

What have been your highlights from other years?

Tess One of my greatest highlights was to work alongside the late Sir Terry Wogan. He was an absolute gentleman who had been there from the very beginning and it genuinely meant so much to him. He's a legendary broadcaster and I just loved that twinkle in his eye and never knowing when he was going to go off-script!

Bear hug: Danny with his old china Pudsey

Marvin I think breaking the record last year for the money raised was an amazing thing. We never start the process thinking we have to smash the previous year's total, so it's just incredible the amount of money we do raise. You always wonder whether it's possible to keep breaking the record – but if we don't, we're still going to raise a hell of a lot of money, and it will be a good night regardless!

BREAK THE INTERNET WITH JOHN ROBINS | Dave THURSDAY

SEARCH PARTY

JOHN ROBINS HOSTS A NEW QUIZ WHERE WE'VE ALL BEEN SETTING THE QUESTIONS...

We've all had that moment where we've started to search for something on the internet and the autocomplete window has thrown up some truly odd suggestions. Well, that's the foundation for this new quiz where contestants must guess the most popular autocompletes so as to stay in the game...

"It's a bit like Family Fortunes, but the internet is the survey," explains host John Robins. "Everyone's seen those drop-down menus when they've typed something into Google, and every so often it makes you think, 'Why are people looking at that?!'"

John will be joined on the show by fellow comic Sunil Patel, who'll be offering up insights into why we search for what we do, and the contestants even offer up their own recent search histories for examination.

"It's nice when their searches tell a story about their lives," shares John. "I think the most common was 'Who is John Robins?' – they'd obviously applied to go on the show then thought, 'I'd better find out who he is!'"

This may be John's first time officially hosting a quiz, but apparently it's the sort of thing he's been doing off-camera for a while...

"I make up my own quizzes!" he chuckles. "I was quizzing my tour manager on London Underground facts yesterday. I really like the format of Who Dares Wins with Nick Knowles – that's my dream quiz to play!"

Tower of destiny

There's a play-along-at-home game that you can take part in tonight, should you find your attention wandering over the course of 100 minutes of frocks, foxtrots and fancy footwork. You just need to count how many times anyone says "Blackpool", because next week the show goes to Blackpool, and tradition dictates that the one before it is given over almost entirely to everyone talking about how much they love Blackpool and how much it would mean for them to dance in Blackpool.

(See? We've said it four times and we're not even on Strictly.)

So keep your ears peeled and join Tess and Claudia as the remaining eight couples compete for the honour of dancing in the Tower Ballroom at... y'know, the B-word.

THE JONATHAN ROSS SHOW | ITV 10.05PM

Regional variations

Looking at the guest list for this week's show got us so excited that we may have let out a medium-sized shriek: Emma Bunton, Geri Horner, Melanie B and Melanie C will be sharing sofa space in the studio, which we can only assume means huge Spice Girls-related news. (Yes, Victoria Beckham isn't there, but we'll still take four out of five over nothing at all.) In fact, it's a bit of a belter on the pop front generally this week, because Kylie Minogue is also due to be on the show to perform with Jack Savoretti. John Bishop completes tonight's line-up – possibly to launch his own pop career, who can say?

King of the jungle

Chances are, if you've made it this far into an issue of Inside Soap, you're probably the sort of person who finds family dramas interesting. Well, in the latest series from the BBC's award-winning Natural History Unit, Sir David Attenborough and the team have spent four years following five of the world's most celebrated and endangered animals in the wild, witnessing the complex family dynamics that rule them.

The series opens in the Kedougou region of Senegal, where a group of chimpanzees is led by their alpha, David. He's been in charge for three years and is now at the stage where his rivals are ready to overthrow him. David has no allies, so he must play the politics of the group shrewdly.

Grandmother's footsteps

DON'T Miss!

DOCTOR WHO | BBC1 7PM

Frustrated by her grandmother's enigmatic stories (including her claim to have been the first woman married in Pakistan), Yaz begs the Doctor to take her for a quick squizz at her nan's younger days. The Doctor reluctantly agrees, on a strict "one hour, no interfering" policy, but once they arrive in 1940s India, of course, Yaz can't simply content herself with a quick glimpse from afar. She's in for a shock, though, when she discovers that her gran's impending marriage isn't quite playing out the way she's always heard about it, while the Doctor discovers a demonic presence in the area...

RUNNING WILD WITH BEAR GRYLLS | ITV 9PM

DON'T Miss!

Ace adventurer

Oh, what to do when you take the greatest tennis player ever on a journey through the Swiss Alps? Pack a ping-pong table, obv's. That's what the man who advises drinking your own wee and throwing your packed lunch in the direction of a wild bear to fend it off chose to stick in his backpack while traipsing Roger Federer across the snowy peaks of Switzerland.

Other A-Team-esque tennis-related survivalist techniques include crossing a frozen lake using rackets as snowshoes and getting creative with a tennis ball to scale a cliff. All that lack of altitude must be affecting Bear's brain, as he challenges Rog to what sounds to us like a Bushtucker Trial and tucks in to frozen fish eyeballs. Blee!

DON'T Miss!

Taking the cake

LIAM BAKES | Channel 4 8PM

We got excited for a minute when we saw 'Liam' in this brand-new show title. Could it be Liam Gallagher steaming up over the broccoli? Liam Payne getting cunning with linguine? Liam Hemsworth sizzling his chorizo? **faints** Actually, it's Liam Charles – that's Cake Boy to Bake Off fans who can hark back to series one of Channel 4's takeover – and he's a man on a mission: making baking super-easy. Liam uses his loaf (arf) to cook up (double arf) some inventive cookery ideas that even the most novice of us are able try out. Well, Liam, we can but rise to the occasion. (Okay, okay, we'll stop now... )

BLINDSPOT | Sky Witness 10PM

Following the shock death of Roman at the end of the last series, Blindspot bursts back on to our screens with its fourth-season opener 'Hella Duplicitous', in which the team finally learns that Jane is slowly being poisoned to death. And another shock about Jane's past is about to be uncovered... Elsewhere, the FBI squad is searching for a dangerous enemy operative, and a deadly new foe appears.

A SCOTTISH SOLDIER | BBC4 10PM

For this one-off documentary commemorating the end of WWI, poet Jackie Kay tells the story of Arthur Roberts – one of thousands of black soldiers who fought in the Great War – who kept a detailed diary of life in the trenches. Bring tissues.

EMMA WILLIS: DELIVERING BABIES | W 10PM

It's the start of another 13-hour shift for Mrs Willis, and her first patient is mum-of-four Julie, who's in with husband Kevin and all four of their kids. Julie's previous births all happened quickly (lucky Julie!), but will it be as speedy this time round?

WE ARE MOST AMUSED AND AMAZED | ITV 8PM

Fit for a prince

That title's a bit of a clunker, isn't it? It's meant to reflect an evening of comedy and magic, with a nod to that famous line attributed to Queen Victoria, since the whole show is being held in honour of HRH Prince Charles' 70th birthday, and to raise money for his youth charity, The Prince's Trust. Fortunately we can confirm that the quality of the content once the show gets under way is much better than the title.

Alexander Armstrong and Ben Miller restore their comic double act to serve as the compères for the evening, and their comedy compatriots include Sandi Toksvig, Bill Bailey and Rowan Atkinson, while the likes of Penn & Teller, Dynamo and the Ehrlich Brothers provide the magic.

The first cut is the deepest

OPEN HEART SURGERY LIVE | Channel 5 10PM

Regional variations

Over the next three nights, Channel 5 partners up with St Bartholomew's Hospital in east London to broadcast three operations performed by leading surgeons, and we're promised that the coverage will be "up close, stripped back, live and uncut" (though that last word feels like a poor choice in these circumstances, doesn't it?). The series begins with an aortic valve replacement – that's open heart surgery, to us mere mortals – and there's a knee replacement booked in for tomorrow, with a hemicolectomy (removing tumours from the bowel) scheduled for Thursday. Brace yourselves, eh?

DAN CRUIKSHANK'S MONUMENTS... | BBC4 9PM

In the aftermath of the First World War, Britain was faced with the challenge of finding a suitable way to pay tribute to those who had died in the conflict. This led to the formation of the War Graves Commission, with a mission to build monuments and cemeteries at the locations of the dead. In this documentary, Dan Cruikshank heads to the Western Front to discover how these tributes came to be.

BULL | 5USA 9PM

In the second-season finale, Bull's client Elliott Miles is convicted of murder and given the death sentence. Just when all seems lost, crucial new evidence seems to implicate someone else, and the team hurries to clear Elliott's name.

THERE SHE GOES | BBC4 10PM

Rosie's overexcited because there's going to be a birthday and presents – but whether she recognises that it's Ben's birthday remains to be seen. Grandma and Gandalf join the family for a birthday meal out, but it's far from relaxing...

From here to maternity

It's the final episode of Desiree Akhavan's smart comedy about one woman's journey through the tricky landscape of dating both sexes, and there are major revelations cropping up all over the place. Sadie finally tells Leila that she's planning to have a baby, which sends Leila into a spiral where she starts thinking that getting back with Sadie and having a baby together would be a good idea. ("Straight people become parents before they're ready all the time!" she points out to sceptical Deniz.) And Gabe's internet research into the father's identity only serves to fuel her flights of fantasy.

Gabe, meanwhile, comes up with a rash solution to keep Francisca in his life – but is it one he'll come to regret?

Take me to church

DARK HEART | ITV 9PM

The grim but gripping crime drama concludes this week with a final two-part story, this time beginning when a woman is found murdered in an east London church (by a priest who bears an uncanny resemblance to Corrie's Jim McDonald, so he does), but it looks as though this wasn't the scene of the crime. Staffe and his team get on the case, but things grow complicated when they learn that the victim had more than one identity. And there are further problems at home for Staffe, as fraught Juliette begs him for help and he ends up saying something he could later regret...

911 | Sky Witness 10PM

We're pleased to report that four episodes into this show's second season, it's lost none of its inventive streak when it comes to the emergencies of the week. For example, tonight the firefighters are called out to assist a security guard who misjudged a jump while in pursuit of some thieves – and is now wedged between two buildings. Also, Chimney goes for a check-up following his horrific car accident from last season, which we're still having nightmares about.

DC'S LEGENDS OF TOMORROW | Sky One 8PM

The Legends explore the punk rock scene of 1970s London this week, while on the trail of a magical being who could bring about the end of the world as we know it. What they're not expecting, however, is a stranger with a familiar face...

ZAPPED | Dave 10PM

Brian has got his mitts on the magic amulet that could potentially send him home – trouble is, it doesn't work. Could the answer lie in the library? Meanwhile, Barbara's mother Cassandra (Tracy-Ann Oberman) pays a visit...

INSIDE THE FOREIGN OFFICE | BBC2 9PM

Envoy of the world

For this new series, the Beeb gained entry to the doors of Whitehall as well as embassies around the globe. And in this first of three episodes – filmed during BoJo's tenure as Foreign Secretary – we'll see how decisions taken as we prepare to leave the EU could shape the UK's relationships with others across the world. We also follow the British diplomats as they grapple with challenges covering Burma to Russia, and focus on one particular lawyer who's hoping to get all 15 members of the UN Security Council to agree to a resolution to enable Daesh fighters to be prosecuted anywhere in the world. Human rights lawyer Amal Clooney also makes an appearance here. It's fascinating stuff.

Rock of all ages

CHILDREN IN NEED ROCKS 2018 | BBC1 8.30PM

PHOTO: GETTY

The likes of George Ezra, Jess Glynne, Nile Rodgers, Olly Murs, Rita Ora, Sir Rod Stewart and more will be doing their bit for charadee by taking to the Wembley arena stage for this special concert in support of BBC Children in Need. They'll be blasting out hits old and new, and maybe the odd surprise cover version, too... You should also expect to hear a number of heartbreaking – and heartwarming – stories from some of the children and young people around the UK experiencing disadvantage who've been helped by projects funded by this amazing cause. Sir Terry would be proud.

Hat tricks

New York, London, Paris, Luton, everyone's talking 'bout hat-making... Okay, so that's not quite how the song goes, but the Bedfordshire town was once the crowning glory of the world's hat-making industry. Fact. Top milliner Philip Treacy is known still to pop to Luton for his supplies (presumably of the barnet-topping kind rather than his weekly shop).

So this week, the makers learn how millinery went from rural craft to global fashion phenomenon, and start off 18th century-style by making a bergère (that's shepherdess, to the uninitiated of us) hat – the height of fashion among the Georgian elite. Later, they're given free rein to produce a titfer they feel expresses their personality. Hats off to 'em.

100 YEARS OF THE RAF | Channel 5 8PM

PHOTO: GETTY

More programming to mark the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War (quite rightly, too), and Channel 5 brings us this documentary which pays tribute to the bravery of those who played their part in the conflict in order to defend our right to freedom. If you were fortunate enough to witness the Royal Air Force's 100th anniversary fly-past earlier this year, you'll have surely felt a flutter of pride and a wave of emotion. In the same vein, you can't fail to be moved by the stories in this film of the courage and sacrifice that form the backbone of the RAF, with narration by Sir Martyn Lewis.

COLDPLAY: A HEAD FULL OF DREAMS | Amazon Prime Video

We've seen some thorough music documentaries in our time, but this one has truly gone above and beyond. Director Mat Whitecross (who also made Supersonic, about Oasis) has known the Coldplay fellas since before they even formed the band, so he has film dating all the way back to their very first rehearsal together. Here, the band reflect on the highs and lows of their 20 years together.

THE KOMINSKY METHOD | Netflix

Michael Douglas stars in this new comedy from The Big Bang Theory creator Chuck Lorre, playing celebrated Hollywood acting coach Sandy Kominsky. Sandy finds fresh inspiration after newly-divorced Lisa signs up for his acting class.

THE BALLAD OF BUSTER SCRUGGS | Netflix

Fargo and The Big Lebowski directors the Coen brothers bring their latest project straight to Netflix. This film is an anthology of stories about the American frontier, starring the likes of James Franco, Brendan Gleeson and Liam Neeson.

IN and OUT

We spin soap's revolving door...

JANET DIBLEY (Melinda, Corrie)

IN Star Janet Dibley made waves in EastEnders 20 years ago as alcoholic Lorna Cartwright, who had an affair with Phil when he was married to Kathy. She made a brief return to the soap two years ago after Phil fell off the wagon once again – but you'll be seeing the actress appearing on the cobbles at the end of the year, as Bessie Street School head teacher Melinda. December

JUSTIN ROSINAK (Ross Nixon, Home and Away)

IN There's more drama in store for Colby next year, as rumours suggest that his wicked stepfather, Ross, will be turning up in the Bay! Ross is the reason that Colby's mother and little sister, Bella, went missing – so could this lead to Colby reuniting with the rest of his family? Actor Justin is no stranger to Summer Bay, as he played youngster Ben McPhee in the soap, back in the 1980s! Early next year

PADDY WALLACE (Jude Appleton, Corrie)

IN Corrie viewers haven't seen the last of Jude Appleton. Mary's son fled the cobbles in shame after his mother exposed his web of lies – prompting wife Angie to dump him. However, Jude will be back in a fresh twist that will see poor Mary put through the emotional wringer once again... "I've shot my final scene," reveals star Paddy Wallace. "The tram exit you saw a couple of weeks ago wasn't it." Later this year

THE EX FILES!

What are the one-time stars of soap up to now?

WITTS' END

Ex-EastEnders star David Witts – aka Joey Branning – admits he struggled with the fame that came with being on the show. “It just takes over your whole life,” says the actor, who is currently appearing in West End musical Wicked. “You can’t go anywhere without people rushing up to you, wanting to take pictures and stuff, and that’s just so strange.” So David wouldn’t be tempted back? “I think everyone I was related to is dead!” he jokes.

HEALTH SCARE!

Corrie star Charles Lawson (Jim McDonald) has revealed that he suffered a mini-stroke while on stage recently. “I was aware for about two or three seconds that something was about to happen – I thought one of my co-stars was messing me about, saying lines from a different play.” However, the actor made a speedy recovery, and was back on stage two days later.

MISSING VAL...

Ex-Emmerdale star Charlie Hardwick has said that she was devastated when she learned that Val Pollard was to be killed off back in 2015. “I was heartbroken because I loved her,” she admits. “Even her clothes. I’m not a woman who does dry-cleaning, yet I envied her fine knits. I was very sad.”

CINEMA

FANTASTIC BEASTS: THE CRIMES OF GRINDELWALD

After being caught by the MACUSA, Grindelwald escapes custody and recruits followers – as he aims to raise pure blood wizards over non-magic beings. Albus Dumbledore enlists the help of Newt Scamander, and together they must defeat their rival before it's too late. Stars Eddie Redmayne and Johnny Depp.

DVD

ROBIN HOOD: THE REBELLION

When Maid Marian is kidnapped by the Sheriff, Robin Hood recruits a band of men to save her. Hood and his men are hugely outnumbered by the Sheriff's guards – can they get her back? The Dales' Ben Freeman stars as Robin Hood.

BOOK

NO TIME TO CRY by James Oswald

Undercover cop DC Constance Fairchild finds her boss dead from a bullet to the head. It then seems that someone at the Met blames her for the failed operation. Can she solve the case before also being silenced?

STAR CHOICE

Corrie's Sally Carman (Abi)

"The Timewaster Letters is a really funny book! It's by Robin Cooper, and about a guy who writes to different companies and is very pedantic – it's the funniest thing. It's a brilliant read to take you out of yourself, as it's not deep and has no particular story. It's so funny."

HITS & MISSES!

WHAT'S HIT THE BULLSEYE RECENTLY – AND WHAT'S FALLEN WIDE OF THE MARK?

It Can Only Happen In A Soap, No 347: Moir breezily giving her husband advice about how best to move on after committing murder.

We're not sure about the Street's new solicitor. He strikes us a bit of a soft touch.

Bless Graham for still pulling on his three-piece every day, even when there's nothing to do at Home Farm. Mate, no one's going to judge you for blobbing in your trackies for a bit.

Corrie's William Flanagan is the absolute spit of his sister Amelia when she was first cast in the Dales. Such a pretty family!

Carmel lying to Keegan that he'd killed a boy was some dark stuff. Too dark for us. 'Tough love' doesn't begin to cover it.

Beth looks like what we imagine is the result of typing 'Grease 2: Where Are They Now?' into Google.

We can just about accept a team of pub cleaners wearing costumes for Halloween... But not a pure white silk dress!

The only things that are out of place in Corrie's cancer plot are Sinead's eyelash extensions. They look like they're about to scuttle off and start a family of their own.

Warning! Take the wrong turn out of Walford East tube and you could end up in a Charles Dickens novel.

Hayley, desperate to have sex to induce labour, chose Keanu. It's good to know that – even at the end of her tether – she still has standards...

...if only she'd been equally picky nine months ago!

It was nice how Charlie Stubbs popped back to see his old squeeze Tracy this week.

Forget the custody battle between Charity and Ross. Moses Dingle would be better off fending for himself on the mean streets of Hotten.

YOU USE IT TO FACE THE DAY WE USE IT TO FACE CANCER

Self-esteem is important to all women, it just happens to be in sharper focus for those who have cancer. That's the reason Look Good Feel Better exists. We have been helping to combat the visible side effects of cancer treatment for over 20 years through free confidence-boosting skincare and make-up workshops across the UK and worldwide.
